Dear Uncle

We are all very sorry that you are not comming out this summer. I wish you would marry
some one nice

But if you do not. I would gladly keep house for you. I can make cakes taffy &
bread & am learning to make buns. I can make beds up. & wash.
a little & iron

Mother & Father
& I & Edith & Ruth
& Eric & Conrad
& baby. I can make lots of other things which I wont say
because I have no
time today

From your loving little Clare
