

Rideau Club,
Ottawa.

See. 6-94.

Dear Rankine,

Walter writes that you are at present at Bourmouth. I wrote you the other day addressed Grosvenor Club, but possibly my letter may not have been forwarded.
Bourmouth must be a pretty quiet place I should think, but there is a great virtue in that if any one can work down to the right place, like one of those delicate odours to appreciate which all other smells must be in Montreal.

The news of Eric is discouraging & I very much fear that his case is almost hopeless. Anna is hoping to have further advice from Dr Zundean before making any more plans. It seems to lie between going south to Ashville or some such place & returning to Montreal.

Some of the newspapers are speaking of an early election here — even before the meeting of Parli'ament, but I think the chances are that

in Montreal.

The news of Eric is discouraging & I very much fear that his
 case is almost hopeless. Anna is hoping to see further advice from Dr Trudeau before making any more plans. It seems to lie between going south
 to Ashville or some such place & returning to Montreal.

Some of the newspapers are
 speaking of an early election here — soon before the meeting of Parli'ament, but I think the chances are that

4

The Govt. will well be to have Once more before 'going to the country!
Anyhow there is great political activity in the matter of Campaign speaking & stamping the Constitution

Yours truly

Jesse

McGILL UNIV ARCHIVE
ACC. NO. 909C/5
REF. 13