Dear Rankine,

Many thanks for your kind letter received by last mail

I think you may find Hodder better disposed than you expect,
especially as a posthumous work always has a special chance; and this was done with character before

he can have it out

As to any repetitions
 such as you mention,
 please consult those if needed by the original in the other Testament. I do not however see the repetition though in my present weak state I may easily have overlooked it.

Since I wrote you,
 I have been startled by the Indians of Suppe, as have Mother and our servants also, and we are all in a very weak condition. Mother Hope is exceedingly, what may happen to me with Sophie added to Family, is much more doubtful.

 We have two nurses
 in attendance, and Anna does all she can for us. The Lord will come for us although we cannot judge his plans respecting us.
