Dear Rankine,

Many thanks for your kind letter of the 16th, re Seen of Patmos,

I confess I scarcely expected Seen of Patmos with that society. It is a little out of their line, Hodder I hoped would have taken it up, as a booklet, rather than a pamphlet;
which last I think with him would scarcely pay

If he still thinks it might be emended for the Reporter, and you have time and health to attend to it, that would be well and he might give me hints from the Reporter to circulate as pamphlets, such as it has appeared in the Amherst Review This might scarcely seem fair to it, though these paragraphs from Frank & Wagner to the Reporter in England in 3 booklets from In any case I could not take pay from the reporter, though you might have a honorarium for the remodeling, and I might receive the entire copies of pamphlets in sheets & stitched up for my share. I have thought that perhaps Morgan & Scott 13 Patern Street building the publishers of the Churchman might take it, but as they are unknown personally to me, I would rather try what Stoddard can do first.

In any case the affair is not in a hurry, and do not tire your self with it.

We are much as usual, but a little run down with the seasonable windy weather, which I believe you have also had a taste of England. Thanks for responses of your little church; and with all prayers and loving wishes for you and Gloria yours ever in love and waiting for our dear Lord from James Dawson
