Feb'y 22nd 1901.

Dear Rankine,

I have received the copy of "Fifty years of work in Canada", being the autobiographical notes left by our late dear friend, your father, edited by your good self.

It will be, indeed, a very interesting volume to me, one which I shall appreciate highly, and I thank you very much for sending it to me.

With kind regards, I am Yours sincerely
William C. Macdonald.
