29. Convocation Address.

Sir Alexander Cadogan.

Benediction

God Save the King

The Audience will please remain standing in their places until the platform party has left.

CORNER STONE LAYING

If the Convocation is held on the Campus, Her Excellency Lady Alexander will lay the corner stone of the new Physical Sciences Centre after the Convocation is over. The platform party will proceed to the corner stone on University Street, and guests are invited to attend this ceremony.

TREE PLANTING

After the corner-stone laying there will be a tree-planting ceremony at which the graduating classes will present a tree to the University. This year the tree is between Dawson Hall and the Milton Street entrance.

Invitation

God Save the King

The Authorities will please remain standing in their places until the national anthem is over.

CORNER STONE LAYING

If the Convocation is held on the 1st August the following Lady Alexander will lay the corner stone of the new Physical Sciences Centre after the Convocation is over. The physical party will proceed to the corner stone on Thursday night and guests are invited to attend the ceremony.

THESE PLANNING

After the corner stone laying there will be a tea-dance at 8.00 p.m. at which the guests will be asked to contribute to the University. The tea will be between Dawson Hall and the Milton Street entrance.
