THE McINTYRE MEDICAL SCIENCES BUILDING

located on Pine Avenue between two of the teaching hospitals of the Faculty of Medicine — the Royal Victoria Hospital and the Montreal General Hospital — provides teaching and research facilities for students of Medicine and Arts and Science. In addition to the Medical Library wing, the building accommodates the Departments of Biochemistry, Physiology and Pharmacology as well as research laboratories associated with specialized institutes and departments.

THE STEWART BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES BUILDING

forms the southerly component of the teaching buildings in the McIntyre Park area. The L-shaped, seven-storey Laboratory building houses the Departments of Botany, Genetics, Psychology and Zoology. The teaching building of the complex, facing on McGregor Street, contains two large lecture theatres, classrooms, a library, and a greenhouse on the roof.

THE OTTO MAASS CHEMISTRY BUILDING

at the corner of Sherbrooke and University streets, is a five-storey L-shaped structure, grouped in four blocks separated by staircases. In addition to modern facilities for undergraduate teaching, the building provides laboratories for inorganic, organic, analytical and physical chemistry as well as a newly-established laboratory for research on synthetic polymers.
