PRINCIPAL AND VICE-CHANCELLOR
H. ROCKE ROBERTSON

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL 2

They follow my most sincere congratulations to the members of the graduating class and their parents on this all important day.

H. Roche Robertson

INVITATION.

Parents, close relatives, and other friends of students in the graduating classes are cordially invited to attend the annual Convocation for conferring degrees on Monday, 30th May, 1966, at 10:00 o'clock in the morning.

PLACE OF CONVOCATION.

If the weather is fine enough, Convocation will be held in the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium; if this is not possible, it will be held in the Forum. The site will be announced over local radio stations at 8:00, 8:30 and 9:00 a.m. on Convocation Day. If in doubt, telephone 844-6311.

TICKETS.

Students in the graduating classes may obtain tickets for their friends at the Registrar's Office, Dawson Hall, on any day between the 20th of April and Friday, May 27th except Monday, May 23rd. There is no limit on the number of tickets each student may have, but it is suggested that, since seating space is limited, not more than four should be asked for.

Graduating students do not need tickets for themselves.

GARDEN PARTY.

If the weather permits, the Principal and Mrs. Robertson will entertain the graduating classes at a Garden Party on the Campus on Convocation Day from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. If it is wet, the party will not be held. The invitation will include the parents of all the students invited and the husbands or wives of married students. Garden Party tickets will be given out at the same time as the tickets for Convocation.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.

Students in the final years of most faculties are not notified individually whether they have qualified for their degrees. The pass lists are posted in the University buildings a week before Convocation and are published in the Montreal newspapers at the same time. Out-of-town students should make arrangements with Montreal friends to have their results sent to them.

ACADEMIC DRESS — Gowns, Hoods, and Caps.

At Convocation, candidates for degrees and diplomas must wear the gowns, hoods, and caps proper to the degrees or diplomas they are to receive. (The rental fees are as follows: gown, $1.75; hood, $1.75; cap, 50 cents). The rental fee for these may be paid at the Cashier's Office in Dawson Hall from Wednesday, 18th May, to Friday, 27th May, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on week days, except Monday, 23rd May. Academic dress will not be obtainable on Convocation Day. Students may, on presentation of their receipts, obtain the robes from Room 226 in the Leacock Building at the same hours. These robes must be returned to Room 226 immediately after Convocation and students should be careful to get back their receipts.

Hoods should hang straight down and caps should be put on straight. Men students should, if possible, wear black shoes and dark suits. Women should wear stockings, white dresses, and black shoes. Flowers and jewelry should not be worn and handbags should not be carried.

PROCESSION.

Students should report in academic dress at 9:00 a.m. at the Pine Avenue entrance if Convocation is held in the Stadium, and at the Forum at the same time if it is held there. Graduating students should enter the Forum by the doors on St. Luke Street. These lead directly to the assembly rooms. Please do not use any other doors.

Candidates fall in two abreast in alphabetical order under each diploma or degree in the places indicated by signs. The order should be checked against the printed programme, which will be available at assembly. The person who is to receive his degree first in each pair stands on the left. Stewards will assist students to find their places.

SEATING PLAN.

Diplomas and degrees are presented in the order used in the printed programme, and accordingly after reaching his seat each student should consult these instructions and the printed list of graduates to make sure he is in his proper place. Anyone out of order should change his seat at once.

HAIL ALMA MATER.

Students are expected to sing Hail Alma Mater (the words are printed in the programme), and also to sing the National Anthem.

USE OF CAPS.

On reaching their seats members of the graduating classes will remain standing with their caps on until those on the platform have taken their seats.

Men — Men remove their caps for the prayer and replace them after singing the College Hymn.

Students receiving degrees other than those of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research are 'capped' by the Chancellor. They walk to the platform carrying their caps in their hands. They put their caps on again when they leave the platform.

Men receiving certificates or diplomas in the undergraduate faculties, or higher diplomas, or degrees in the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, are not 'capped'. They wear their caps to the platform but raise them with the left hand while shaking hands with the Chancellor.

Women — Women receiving degrees are 'capped' unless the degrees are in the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. They remove their caps when going to the platform and replace them when they return to their seats. Women receiving certificates, diplomas, or graduate degrees are not 'capped'. They keep their caps on.

PRESENTATION.

As soon as the Dean rises to present the candidates for a particular degree or diploma, all those in the first line of seats in that division stand and go forward as directed, the first candidate proceeding directly up the steps to where the Dean is standing.

The students following should not wait at the foot of the steps, but each student should be on the platform by the time the Dean is ready to read his name. The stewards will tell each row of candidates when to stand and move up to the platform.

The students receiving higher degrees are all presented by the Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. There should therefore not be a long gap between those receiving one degree and the next: M. Eng. should follow closely on M.Sc., etc.

ON THE PLATFORM.

Students will mount the platform by the steps on the left facing the platform and will pause as they come to the Dean of their Faculty. The Dean will call the names in order as printed in the programme. Candidates should therefore be careful to see that they follow each other in this order. Each candidate should whisper his name to the Dean as he approaches him.

When his name is called, the candidate will walk up to the chair of the Chancellor and stand quite still close to it and directly in front of it so that the Chancellor may cap him or shake hands with him. He will then return to his seat, leaving the platform by the steps on the opposite side.

Please walk right up to the Chancellor and stand still facing him so that the degree may be conferred in a dignified way.

SMOKING.

Students are not permitted to smoke during Convocation.

PRIZES AND MEDALS.

Prizes and medals won by students will be announced by the Deans when they are presenting the winners for their degrees. The actual prizes and medals will be given out with the diplomas in the Registrar's Office after Convocation (see below).

CONCLUSION.

When the proceedings are concluded, graduates will please remain standing until the Platform Party has passed down the aisle.

DIPLOMAS.

Diplomas will be given out in the Registrar's Office after the ceremony, between the hours of 12:00 noon and 5:00 p.m. Graduating students are required to sign receipts for their diplomas and must therefore call at the Registrar's Office in person.

Any further information will be given by the Stewards.

DEGREES IN ABSENTIA.

Graduating students who know beforehand that they will not attend Convocation should inform the Dean of their Faculty or the Director of their School so that they may be marked in absentia in the programme. For taking a degree or certificate in absentia there is a fee of $10.00. The diplomas of those who pay this fee are mailed to them after Convocation. Such students should give the proper address to the Registrar's Office when they pay the fee.

GRADUATES' SOCIETY.

The Graduates' Society is anxious to keep in touch with the graduating class and would like you to inform the Records Department of any change of address. All graduates are invited to attend meetings of any of the fifty-eight branches of the Society.

C. M. McDOUGALL.

Registrar.
