

Johannes wicoff

Wycliffe
c. 1320-84
Theologian

Wycliffe was a leading theologian and philosopher of the late medieval period. He was a member of the Franciscan Order and a member of the University of Oxford. He was a leading proponent of the Lollard movement, which sought to reform the Church and to promote a more direct relationship between God and man. He was a leading proponent of the idea of the "poor priest" and of the "poor man's church".

Wycliffe
1308-72
Theologian

Wycliffe was a leading theologian and philosopher of the late medieval period. He was a member of the Franciscan Order and a member of the University of Oxford. He was a leading proponent of the Lollard movement, which sought to reform the Church and to promote a more direct relationship between God and man. He was a leading proponent of the idea of the "poor priest" and of the "poor man's church".

Wycliffe was a leading theologian and philosopher of the late medieval period. He was a member of the Franciscan Order and a member of the University of Oxford. He was a leading proponent of the Lollard movement, which sought to reform the Church and to promote a more direct relationship between God and man. He was a leading proponent of the idea of the "poor priest" and of the "poor man's church".

Wycliffe was a leading theologian and philosopher of the late medieval period. He was a member of the Franciscan Order and a member of the University of Oxford. He was a leading proponent of the Lollard movement, which sought to reform the Church and to promote a more direct relationship between God and man. He was a leading proponent of the idea of the "poor priest" and of the "poor man's church".