

..... " We are glad to be able to contribute to your celebrations.
We are happy to participate in upholding the spirit of brotherhood of man which is enshrined in the Exhibition.
It is our sincere hope that our humble contribution, the Thai Pavilion, will afford Canadians and other visitors to Expo a glimpse of certain components of the Thai nation, our culture and perhaps an insight into our way of life and intentions. "

H. M. King Shumbol Adulyadej of Thailand on Thai National Day.
