NEW YORK CITY

September 12, 1924.

Dear Doctor Wood:

I find that McGill University is one of the institutions which we call "depositories," namely, one that receives every publication of The American Museum of Natural History.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Robert Cushman Murphy

Assistant Director.

CABLE ADDRESS "MUSEOLOGY NEW YORK"

AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

77TH STREET AND CENTRAL PARK WEST

NEW YORK

December 28, 1921.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of December 23, I would say that as an Associate Member of the Museum you are entitled to current copies of "Natural History." This year there has been considerable delay in getting out the magazine, and the November-December number (the first number to which you are entitled as a December member) is still in press. It should be ready for distribution within a few weeks, at which time we shall take pleasure in seeing that you receive your copy.

Assuring you of our appreciation of your interest in the Museum, I am,

Very truly yours,

Leo K. Sherwood

Executive Secretary.

Mr. Robert Ridgway,
1030 South Morgan Street,
Olney, Illinois.
