Bowdler Sharpe Collection

East End
Leicester

Dec 14. 1876

My dear Sir

It will give me great pleasure if you will spend a day or two with me en route to Hadleigh and we could go on to Ipswich and there by hiring [illegible] & can also discuss numerous other matters

A. R. Wallace

Bowdler Sharpe Collection

East Hill
Colchester

Dec 4. 1876

Dear Sir.

I beg to enclose what may perhaps somewhat interest you as being part lost in I know grieves Lowe to encourage in my absence in Mr Mansfield in striking me glad to get hold of the last entertained in Mr Enclosed. If you take the Rivers I wish had him up

C. A. Rose

Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Oct 7. 1876

Dear Sir

I have y 28th Inst
Enquiries in last brought me by me of the Birds of the Yarrish Exhibition
They are. 1. Sparrow
2. Herring Gull?
1 Skua Gull
1. Puffin
1 Cormorant
And one marked Little Tern.
But it is not that bird being very much altered to the Egg of Little Gull which I have from Lake Ladoga is my Collection

I see you are working at the birds and I thought you might like these extreme Eggs. with the kindly take me if Little Gull is in the Collection and if the large Gull is a Siberian Herring Gull

My first Collection of Russian Eggs Comprising 4600 Specimens and 519 Species is in the hands of Higgins 24 Bloomsbury St. for Sale

Yours Truly
T. E. Buckley

Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Cast Hill.
Colchester.

Feb. 17. 1894

Dear Sir. Baron Hügel has requested me to write to you as to the loan of the skin he gave to the Museum of Aquila Imperialis and Harpyia destined in your work upon the "Birds of Europe". I am obliged of preparing it in the new Edition of my "Birds of Europe" & will take the greatest care of it if he will entrust it to me

Yours truly

A. Bell