regarding the skins. Mr. Donald now writes me asking me if we have yet heard what species they belong to. Would you kindly inform me what they are?

I am,

Yours Sincerely

Dear Sir,

I have sent in a box addressed to Mr. W. Ogilvie Grant two skins of Owls which I shall be glad if you will take charge of until you hear from Mr. Comber, the Honorary Secretary of our Bird Section. Mr. Comber is writing to you fully on the subject but please note that the skins are to be returned to us.

I remain, Dear Sir
Yours faithfully
Hm Lee.

My dear W. Bowdler Sharpe

I hope the Burmese Pheasant skin which I sent you some months ago reached you safely that you have since had time to examine it.

Believe me
Yours very truly
