My dear Dr. Wood:

I greatly appreciate your kind letter of March 29th and would like very much to have a copy of your book. You can realize how much I want the book when I state I will gladly pay whatever duty is required to obtain it--altho I am inclined to deny that Uncle Sam needs the money more than do most of Uncle Sam's citizens!

Hoping that some day you may drop in on us at Kent, or that I may be somewhere in the neighborhood of McGill when you are there,

Most sincerely,

Rex Brasher

My dear Mr. Brasher:

In reply to yours of April 5th, I am asking the Oxford University Press, Oxford, England, to mail you a copy of my Introduction. When it arrives - probably six weeks from this date - kindly let me know.

Sincerely yours,
