Bowdler Sharpe Collection

46. Eversfield Place.
Hastings.

29. May 76.

My dear Sharpe.

I am so sorry you have troubled pen & Ink since rely you took a thorough rest and that you are much better for it. If it does

You want to write to Colebrooke (Brookeboro', Fermanagh), if you can have application done & my return I shall be so glad. It will enable me to clinch the early half of the Literary. Bird. Yours ever F. Victor Brooke not bother you I wd.

like the rest of Aeschylus's article
r. mind. I think it is an important bit of work & has been overlooked. I have not forgotten the

12 tickets shall I send
it. stance or wait
till you have done
the translation?
I go to Ireland on business tomorrow
night & the mail
shall be there a week
when I return. Yr