Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Societeit „Amicitia."

Leiden 6 January 1893

My dear Sharpe,

I have just made arrangements with Mrs. Horst for the lodging of Emily. If she will come for skating she ought to come as soon as possible because we have got splendid ice since New year and nobody knows how long it will last in our oceanic climate.

Of course I need not say that you and Chubb are welcome whenever you arrive, and I am only sorry that the pleasure to have you here will be so very short. I think that Emily does not need to return with you, as Mrs Horst will be pleased to keep her as long as possible.

Excuse, please, these few hasty lines which I want to get ready for the night boat, and believe me

yours truly

J Burbick
