Dear Dr. Sharpe

I have not had time to think of anything outside the work I have been doing — Thank goodness I have now nearly got to the end of it, and am getting my things together.

I am off to Liverpool today — Back on Saturday night — Shall have Monday and Tuesday evenings free — I wonder if you and Miss Sharpe are disengaged for either of those two evenings — If so will you let me get you tickets for the Shaftsbury theatre — if you have not seen the piece.

I am off on Thursday from Southampton.

Yours sincerely

C. Christy.
