Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Kew. June 30.87

Dear Bowdler Sharpe,

The Curatorship of the Rattlesnakes is entirely out of my line. Such weight as I have at the C.O. owes its bonds to their botanical.

But it appears to me that there is a pretty strong case for Davison. They don't care for wire-

-pulling at the C.O.
So I thought the best thing to do was to send the letters on to them to form their opinion. I added that if the appointment was this open they had better refer to Flower for any further information

Yours sincerely

W. T. Thiselton Dyer
