Sir,

We have received a letter from Mr. R.R. James asking us to send direct to Professor Josef Hirschhorn a copy of "Fundus Oculi of Birds" which was illustrated by the late Mr. A.W. Head. We regret to inform you that there are now no copies available in this country. We got in touch with Mrs. Head who has one copy of the work but it is badly damaged and we do not feel justified in sending this to Professor Hirschhorn. We are therefore having our copy recovered as it had become slightly damaged at the corners but otherwise is in perfect condition, and will send it with your compliments to Professor Hirschhorn in the course of the next few days. We understand from Mr. James' letter that you would like us to charge this to you and we should be glad to know therefore, at your convenience, what your wishes are in this respect. We actually paid £2. 2. 0. each for a quantity of these books so we leave it to you to let us know what we are to charge.

Assuring you that our best services are always at your disposal,

We are, Sir,
Your obedient servants,
Theodore Hamblin, Ltd.

A.G. Fetter
Secretary.
