CARL D. SHOEMAKER,
STATE GAME WARDEN
R. E. CLANTON,
MASTER FISH WARDEN
WILLIAM L. FINLEY,
STATE BIOLOGIST

STATE OF OREGON
FISH AND GAME COMMISSION

COMMISSIONERS:
JAMES WITHYCOMBE
C. F. STONE
I. N. FLEISCHNER
MARION JACK
FRANK M. WARREN

OREGON BUILDING
FIFTH AND OAK STREETS
PORTLAND

July 18, 1917.

Dr. Casey Wood,

7 West Madison St.,

Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:

I have just returned from a month's trip in southeastern Oregon, and find your letter of June 18th. I have received your monograph which you sent me, entitled "Fundus Oculi of Birds". I appreciate getting it very much and want to thank you for sending it.

Very truly yours,

William L. Finley

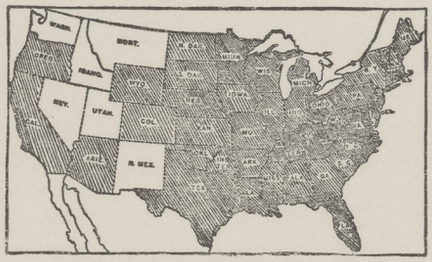
State Biologist.

Casey A. Wood Collection

National Association of Audubon Societies

[Founded 1901. Incorporated 1905]

For the Protection of Wild Birds and Animals

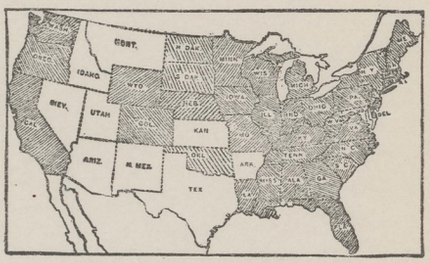


Map showing (shaded) States that have Audubon Societies

Home Office, 1974 Broadway
New York City

T. GILBERT PEARSON, President
THEODORE S. PALMER, 1st Vice-President
FREDERIC A. LUCAS, 2nd Vice-President
WILLIAM P. WHARTON, Secretary
JONATHAN DWIGHT, Treasurer
SAMUEL T. CARTER, Jr., Attorney

Office of
WILLIAM L. FINLEY
Naturalist and Lecturer



Map showing (shaded) States that have adopted the Audubon Law protecting the non-game birds wrote him re Methuselas capitellus Ans. Apr 8/24

Jennings Lodge, Oregon
March 20 - 1924.

Dr. Casey Wood,
7 North Madison St,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Dr. Wood,

I appreciate your sending me a copy of your letter. I enjoyed it and especially your experiences with gulls.

I understand you are in California. If you ever come up this way let me know and we should like to see you. My old school mate Dr. Ralph Fenton tells me he studied under you.

Sincerely,
William L. Finley.