Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Bretten, november 15th 1909.

Dear Sir! As you are specialist for Paradise birds I venture to offer some species in very good skins.

Parotia Wahnesi
1/ male in full feather
2/ female adult.
3/ male in colour £ 7,
male in transition to full feather but red brown and black all (magnificent) 4 M 300.
= £ 15.—

Lophorina minor latipennis very beautiful skin = £ 4

But I believe you have received this species from the Frinj Museum.

I have received
4 nests of Paradisea
augusti de Victoriae.
From this 4 nest 3 are purchased, but the fourth can still be offered, a beautiful nest with the appar-
taining two eggs, eggs
in a very good condition and preparation. The price would be
M 100. = £ 5.
In several weeks I can offer nest and

eggs of Manucodia
atra = £ 2. — .+/
and other nests and eggs of New Guinea
birds

Yours very truly

F. Foerster
Professor
Bretten
Baden

x) My collector, for the moment ill in Germany, cannot open for the moment his chests.
But in some days I hope.