Signal Office,

WAR DEPARTMENT,

Washington City, December 13th, 1888.

My Dear Ridgway:

In reply to yours of 11th instant, I beg to say that you were sent a copy each of Turners and Nelsons, Alaska reports, which you acknowledged . I find Mr. Turner omitted your name from the list of those he asked his report sent to.

I have taken pleasure in ordering sent you to-day two (2) additional copies of each of these reports and trust you will not hesitate to ask for more if you need them.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Admiral
Chief Signal Officer.

Mr. Robert Ridgeway,

Care, Smithsonian Institution,
Washington, D.C.

My Dear Mr. Ridgeway

I transmit to you, herewith, originals and duplicate proofs of eleven colored plates to accompany Mr. Turner's report, with request that you will have the kindness to return the same at your earliest convenience with information as to whether the proofs are correct or not. I should be pleased also if Mr. Turner could see and examine them if it be necessary.

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy in this matter, I am,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

J. M. G. eddy
Chief Signal Officer.
