Dr Casey Wood

Chicago Ill.

My Dear Sir: I have mailed to day with much pleasure "Random Notes on Natural History" and the "Ologist" to the Librarian of the Ill Univ[ersity] and am very grateful for the order especially as they will be preserved for the use of many for all time. I do not happen to have Cory's Birds of Ludovici nor his Catalogue of West Indian Birds but I have written a friend who may be able to supply and if so will inform you. My library of Ornithological books I feel disposed to sell in its entirety. It is rich in local and state lists especially. I have almost all of the standard books, many of which are hard to obtain. all the with while magazines (no amateur). Doubtless the Emma Sheaver Wood Library has the bulk of my books. Would be pleased to hear from you if interested. Thanking you I remain

Yours very truly
