London, England.

Dear Mrs. Head:

Replying to yours of February 23rd, I am very glad to know that you have disposed of the copies of the Fundus Oculi of Birds. Considering the state of the market I think Sotheran gave you a very liberal amount for them.

The copies sent me arrived safely and I wish you would send me a regular bill for them made out to the E. S. W. Library Fund, McGill University, Montreal, Canada. Please send it to the above address. Upon its receipt I will return you a check for the amount.

Thank you; I am feeling very much better than I was due, no doubt, to happy surroundings in this beautiful country. Wishing you all good luck, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Head :-

Referring to our recent conversation, I would strongly advise you to dispose of Mr. Head's books and drawings at the best available offer within the next few months.

So far as the coloured drawings of the Fundi of Animals is concerned my feeling is that they ought to be sold en masse to the London Zoological Society for deposit in their fine library. If they do not want them at a fair price you may feel free to offer them elsewhere.

If, however, my further suggestion appeals to you write ~~me to~~ abml Feb 1/31 to :—

Vista del Arroyo,
Pasadena,
California,

and I shall be glad to do what I can to assist the sale.

Sincerely yours,

Casey A. Wood
