

C. DAVIES SHERBORN
DONAVIT.

DEPARTMENT OF COINS AND MEDALS, BRITISH MUSEUM,

LONDON: W.C.

July 15. 1904

Dear Mr. Sherborn.

I must apologise
for not acknowledging your coins. I thought I could deal with the whole matter in the same day; then we were invaded by an enormous collection
which has put everything else out of our heads.

I should like to keep four of the coins, and am booking you for 20/- accordingly. Do you mind waiting for the next Trustees meeting in October? If you do, I can arrange to pay before then.

As you work at the Museum, the Audit Office may object to your selling coins to the Trustees. Can you give me the address of a friend who will sell them for you? Or how shall we arrange

it?

I return the others ~~two~~ coins, with many thanks.

Yours very truly
G. H. Hill
