THIRTEEN SEVENTY-FIVE LIDA STREET
PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

May 23, 1934.

Dear Dr. Wood:

Your telegram also reached me several days ago, but I was unable to answer it at the time by reason of the passing of Mrs. Hodge on April 27th. I shall be happy to see you or some other young woman coming as may be convenient to you, and I shall be glad indeed to have luncheon with you.

Ingersoll is a long-time friend whom I value and admire, and he is a scholar withal. Since your letter reached me at home

last week from the Engadine, brought a very sympathetic letter
from Mrs. D.

Do let me know
when you return home
as I should like to see more of you.

Cordially yours,

Frederic
