☞ The Riverside Press is a regular Station of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and is in direct communication with every Telegraph office in the country.

J. A. Allen Collection

Hurd and Houghton,
13 Astor Place,
New York.

H. O. Houghton and Company,
cor. Beacon & Somerset sts.
Boston.

The Riverside Press,

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

25 Febmary 1876

Mr J A allen

Dear Sir: We have received from Mr W. A. Stearns jr. of Amherst the Ms of a book on the birds of New England. We hardly feel willing to decide on the book without advice from some one scientifically qualified. May we trouble you with the matter? If so, we will send the Ms to you at the Museum or wherever else you may desire.

We presume a rapid examination from you would suffice.

Yours truly

W. Bullock & Co.