My dear Jones,

I was vexed to miss you and Mrs Jones the other day, more especially as it was only by a quarter of an hour, but better luck next time.

Some of our "mutual" friends are coming to see me at Barnet on Saturday afternoon the 24th inst., leaving King's Cross at 2.15, for Barnet Station, main line. I hope you will be able to join them

I remain, with Kindest regards to Mrs Jones & yourself

Yours very sincerely

A M Jenkins.
