Bowdler Sharpe Collection

Dear 28th 1891

2, RUSSELL VILLAS,
RICHMOND.

My dear Sharpe

I expect Sandys & a friend of his, & also (probably) his manager Mr. Cordal to dine with me on Saturday, & Macalister will also be of the party, & I would be very much obliged by your kindly him free from any Saturday — & have tried 4 or 5 times!

I hope that you & yours have will survived this vile week of darkness — & with best wishes for the N. Year

yours sincy
A. Bruce Joy.

We have not yet managed our threatened incursion on you & Mrs Sharpe at the Museum — but hope soon.

arranging with the Steward (if you happen to be at the Club soon) to have 5 seats kept at the top (to your left) table if it should be convenient, & you do not want
the seats. - I write to yourself as you
may perhaps have many friends next

set. - Sandow has voluntarily offered
to show us some "feats"
of strength, & his friend also is talented in another line I believe.

I hoped to have had Wachtel the violinist
but he is again on a tour in the S & S.W. - I have never yet
