Dear Sir:-

I received your letter yesterday morning and the collection of bird skins is at Mr. Bill this morning. I proposed to load the cattle things in a covered truck and unload it directly at the Redpath Museum.

Sentiment may be out of place here, but when the last cabinet was loaded and the truck moved away, a few tears rolled down my cheeks.

This collection represented a work of love during twelve years and it faded away in a few seconds.

In this other land, I lost my position last year and much money. This is why I am very thankful indeed to you. My home is a very humble one indeed, but I would consider it a great privilege to have the pleasure of your visit, if you come to Durhee City.

Once more thanking you most sincerely, I am

Yours very truly,

Rose Langley
