Bowdler Sharpe Collection

BRITISH MUSEUM (NATURAL HISTORY),

CROMWELL ROAD,

LONDON: S.W.

July 26th 1907.

The Assistant-Keeper of Zoology British Museum (Natural History)

Dear Sir,

Will you kindly give the necessary orders for the restitution to me of a pair of hemiglaux horns, which have been removed from

W. Pycraft's name, for whom I had sent them. I am obliged to leave on Monday & have to make use of the specimen before I leave. Tickell promised papers of it to these chaps.

With kind regards & thanks

yours truly

Joseph Wagg