AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

To the Shareholders of The Bank of Toronto :

We have examined the books and accounts of The Bank of Toronto at its Head Office and have been furnished with certified returns from the Branches, and report that the above statement of liabilities and assets as at the 30th November, 1939, is in accordance therewith, and in our opinion discloses the true condition of the Bank. We have verified the cash and the securities representing the Bank's investments held at the Head Office at the close of the Bank's fiscal year, and during the year we counted the cash and examined the securities at certain of the important branches. We have received all the information and explanations we have required, and all transactions of the Bank which have come under our notice have, in our opinion, been within the powers of the Bank.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

GENTLEMEN:

We present to you today our 84th Annual Statement. It will be noted that, in keeping with other Banks whose annual figures have appeared, a rather substantial expansion is evident in practically all important departments.

Profits from regular operations are slightly up but not materially changed. Chiefly due, however, to a heavy grain crop in the West, our recoveries have been relatively large, enabling us to carry forward to our Profit and Loss account $524,229. and raising that fund to $2,529,694. These recoveries, while we hope they are not entirely exhausted, are largely non-recurring, and I am afraid that we cannot look forward to similar results in the future.

The past year must go into history as one of great significance, no matter what may be the ultimate result of its rather startling developments.

FLOW OF WAR SUPPLIES HAS STARTED:

Canada, as part of the Commonwealth of British nations, has a vital role in the struggle against Germany. Apart from the war itself, the leading development of the year, from our viewpoint, was the emphasis thrown upon Canada's position as a source for raw materials and war supplies for Great Britain, and as an intermediary for business between the Allies and the United States. We have not been made the centre of the Empire, nor has the volume of war business come up to the expectations of the optimists, but the flow of supplies has at least been started. The opportunity exists for further development of this kind, which should be of real help to the Empire and to the Allies, and at the same time enhance the importance of Canada. The inauguration of a scheme for the training in Canada of airmen from other parts of the Empire is one example.

While our bonds with the Mother-country are thus being tightened, we are at the same time fortunate in being able to maintain and cement those close relations with the United States which have been such an important factor in past Canadian development. Even if we become more industrialized because of the war, this is likely to represent an expansion of North American enterprise as a whole, rather than an increase in competition between the two countries. In this emergency the Allies are fortunate in being able to draw upon the resources of the United States, which nation is the leading producer and consumer of industrial products, and at the same time the greatest storehouse of available supplies.

POST WAR AMERICAS WILL LEAD IN ECONOMIC CHANGES:

It is a foregone conclusion that this war, like the last one, will do lasting damage to Europe as a whole industrially because countries elsewhere will retain at least part of the industries and trade connections which they are now being forced to establish in substitution for European sources. The Americas, comprising two continents of peaceful development, are likely to have a leading role in these economic changes.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

In order to avoid painful disillusionment over the next few years, we must bear in mind that the war will be a tremendous cost to all participants, that our particular job of furnishing some of the materials cannot bring us more than a partial compensation in the form of profit, and that even the neutrals must feel the pinch of diminished markets and trade disturbances. We can look for a stimulated production in Canada, but we probably will have to finance it through our own resources and savings, and that calls for a program of the strictest economy. We may even have to liquidate some of our external debt at the same time that we are providing the money for our own development.

FROM PEACE TO WAR ECONOMY WITH LITTLE DISTURBANCE:

I will not attempt to detail the economic trends of the past year, because the declaration of war in early September opened an entirely new chapter in our affairs. The first eight months had been rather discouraging, the threat of war being a constant deterrent to enterprise. By the same token, however, the actual outbreak of war found people well prepared for the shock. Thus we were converted from a peace to a war economy with little disturbance to industry. Under the war conditions of the last four months there was a stimulus to production and buying, with a gain of about fifteen per cent in commodity prices, and of course the prospect of an active war program improved business sentiment in nearly every field.

PRODUCTION HIGHER:

For the year 1939 as a whole, volume of production was substantially higher than in 1938. The yield of farm crops was good, and with the help of a moderate price recovery the total value of field crops was estimated at $635 millions, or the highest figure since 1930. The stock of wheat in the country is exceptionally high at the present time, but there is some advantage in this under war conditions. Feed is plentiful as the basis of our live-stock and dairy industries, which continue to be limited only by markets and prices, though these are a little improved.

MINING SHOWS GAIN:

Mining production and prices show a moderate gain for the year, and arrangements have been made for the marketing of certain metals at stable prices for war purposes. The enhanced output of gold continues to provide this country with an important fund of foreign exchange which is particularly valuable at the present time. The lumber and newsprint industries enjoyed a definite improvement. Nearly all lines of manufacturing had considerable gains during the year.

Both exports and imports have increased, and the net balance of Canadian exports is being well maintained and amounts to over $300 millions a year.

Our entry into the war was marked, almost from the start, by the establishment of certain controls over our industrial and financial affairs. While these at the present time are perhaps not excessive for the job in hand, we must constantly bear in mind that the powers delegated to the various boards and committees are of a wide and dictatorial nature, so that we will be exposed to the danger of their being exercised to an extreme degree, or being extended beyond the term of their need. Thus far, fortunately, they have been for the most part held in reserve.

BANKS CO-OPERATE WITH FOREIGN EXCHANGE BOARD:

The war-time regulations which affect the banks most directly are those of the Foreign Exchange Control Board. These deal in the first instance with foreign exchange in the narrower sense of foreign money, cheques and drafts, but in order to implement the plans of the Government to conserve our buying power in the United States and other foreign markets, the Board has been accorded power to deal with securities, merchandise exports and imports, etc., and it has issued numerous regulations covering such items as well as those previously mentioned. Much of the detail in connection with this work has been thrown upon the banks, while at the same time their normal income from foreign exchange operations has been curtailed. We are not disposed to complain of this situation, for our customers as well as ourselves are burdened with a great deal of new work and uncertainty through the regulations. But we do sincerely hope that this control will not become an intolerable burden and a permanent feature of our life.

GOVERNMENT'S FINANCIAL POLICY COMMENDED:

In contrast to the last war, when all participants borrowed for most of their needs, the approach to the problem of financing the present war has been far from inflationary. A loan was promptly floated through the banks, and another one for public subscription is now under way. But a very heavy program of taxation is planned, and we understand that only the excess needs will be borrowed. We cannot as yet visualize the details, but evidently the problem is that of utilizing the existing industrial and financial resources to the best advantage, and avoiding as far as possible any price inflation such as might be induced by an early program of heavy borrowing. This must be commended, when we recall the disastrous effects of policies which bring currency depreciation, and when we bear in mind how conscious the public has become, in this as in other countries, of the dangers which are inherent in radical measures of public finance.

PAY-AS-WE-GO:

Knowing that we must meet a heavy war burden, it will be better for all concerned to have a pay-as-we-go policy in which everyone must share, rather than an attempt to meet the costs through fanciful schemes which lead to ruin. It is rather significant that the monetary plans which blossom in the years of depression seem to fade out when the real needs of war arise.

MUST NOT SACRIFICE REAL INTERESTS OF PEOPLE:

These considerations remind us that beyond the immediate hazard of the war there is another danger which may be more insidious because it is less evident. We have seen how certain governments of Europe, while nominally claiming to advance the interests of their peoples, have in reality called upon them for unprecedented sacrifices in their living standards, for vainglorious purposes of the state.

We must be constantly on guard lest the same kind of thought gains dominance in our own life. The totalitarian idea flourishes in the atmosphere of regulation which is thrust upon us by the war, and the longer these conditions prevail the greater is the danger of it taking permanent root.

INDIVIDUAL EFFORT AND INCENTIVE MUST NOT BE DISCOURAGED:

It is impossible for the people of any nation to thrive, either morally or materially, under a scheme which deprives the individual of control over his own thought and action, and leaves him entirely at the mercy of government. The welfare of the individual must remain the measure of success, in public as in private life. There must be a predominance of individual rather than of community effort, and this demands a predominance of private property and incentive. The war must not be allowed to be more than an interlude during which we temporarily lay aside our ambitions in order that we may use our existing facilities to the full for the success of the campaign.

It will leave us a further legacy of debt, taxation, regulation, and other burdens which are handicaps to the kind of development on which our future depends. But we must keep our thoughts and hopes turned toward the time when we can once again resume the kind of progress which so improved the life of the individual through the past century.

GENERAL MANAGER'S ADDRESS

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN:

The 84th Annual Balance Sheet which is before you shows the result of the year's operations and the Bank's position as on November 30th last, and will, I believe, be accepted by you as satisfactory.

Our Profits for the year, after providing for all known or anticipated contingencies, amounted to $1,324,229. and, as our President has remarked, a considerable portion of the increase shown is attributable to recoveries of amounts previously written off as uncollectible.

After paying our regular dividend and writing off the usual appropriation against Bank Premises, we carried forward to Profit and Loss Account $524,229.

Total Assets show an increase of $19,727,103. and now stand at $168,339,469., the highest point in the Bank's history.

Quick Assets consisting of cash or of assets readily converted into cash total $109,909,026. and equal 72.95% of all liabilities to the public. Of this amount $30,658,447. is represented by Cash, Bank Balances (including Bank of Canada) and notes and cheques of other banks.

SECURITIES:

$77,089,849. are up $12,997,282. for the year. 94% of the total is Dominion and high-grade Provincial and Municipal bonds of relatively short maturity.

CALL LOANS:

Secured by stocks, debentures, bonds and other marketable securities $2,160,729. are $436,535. less than a year ago and reflect the less active security market that has prevailed in Canada during the past year.

COMMERCIAL LOANS:

$47,109,325. are up $6,969,587. an increase of 17.36% over the previous year.

While there has again been an appreciable increase in the amount of our funds employed under this heading, the proportion of our total deposits so employed is much lower than we would like to see and we will welcome, as they occur, opportunities of making additional funds available for sound commercial and industrial activities. The increasing demand noticeable since the outbreak of war suggests that loans required by industry during 1940 will exceed the figures to which we have been accustomed during recent years.

MUNICIPAL LOANS:

$6,067,530. are approximately $500,000. below last year's figures. It is encouraging to note the improvement taking place in the financial position of various municipalities as the result of greater efficiency and a more earnest effort to balance their budgets. This is commendable indeed.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

BANK PREMISES:

$3,383,765. show no material change, the erection of permanent premises suitable for our needs at Bloor and Jane Streets and St. Clair Ave. and Bathurst St. in Toronto, together with other expenditures by way of additions to present offices, having offset the major portion of the appropriation of $200,000. for premises account.

NOTES IN CIRCULATION:

$3,597,504 are $152,210. less than a year ago. The maximum amount we will be allowed to circulate will, as from January 1st, 1940, be further reduced by 5% and must not exceed $4,500,000.

DEPOSITS:

$142,034,974. show a very satisfactory increase of $20,633,407. of which $13,558,318. are deposits by the public, an increase of 11.49%, the increase of public deposits in all banks in Canada for the same period being 8.13%.

Our Government deposits are up $7,075,088. largely represented by short-term bonds purchased from the Government in October, proceeds of which had not been disbursed at the end of our year.

A review of the financial statement is not complete without commenting upon the intangible and ever-increasing asset of goodwill accumulated over the eighty-four years of the Bank's existence. We are very grateful to the many friends who favour us with their business and are proud to serve them.

INSPECTIONS:

Branches of the Bank have all been inspected by our Inspection Staff during the year, and the usual audit of securities, cash and loans has been made by the Shareholders' auditors at the Head Office and main branches in Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

STAFF:

It is with sincerity that I again express my keen appreciation of the good work and loyal support received from the staff, evidence of which is seen in the substantially improved Annual Statement.

Twenty-four members of our staff have already enlisted to serve their Country, and have been granted leave of absence with the assurance that a position and a welcome awaits their return.

In conclusion I feel sure that it is a source of satisfaction to you at this time when our country is at war, to know that your Bank is sound, liquid, and buttressed by cash and securities of our own Dominion to the point that we are prepared to meet any demands that may conceivably confront us. Our primary concern at the moment must be the successful prosecution of the war, and it can be said with no uncertainty that The Bank of Toronto can be depended upon wholeheartedly to do its part.
