Dame Trot and her Cat
Sat down for a chat ;
The Dame sat on this side,
And Puss sat on that.

The Dame went to market
To buy her a mouse ;
When she came back
Puss was sweeping the house.

She went for some ale,
Because she was dry ;
When she came back,
Puss was making a pye.

She went out to buy
Miss Puss a new freck ;
When she came back
She was riding poor Shock.

She went to buy apples,
And sugar and spice ;
When she came back,
Puss was fiddling to mice.

She went out to buy
The Cat a new wig ;
When she came back
Puss was roasting a pig.
