

CHEAP REPOSITORY

FOR

Moral & Religious Publications.

The Price of which is in general an Halfpenny or a Penny, and will seldom exceed Two-pence.

Two or three new ones will be published every Month.

THIS Institution was opened in March, 1795. Its object is to furnish the People at large with useful Reading, at so low a price as to be within reach of the poorest purchaser. Most of the Tracts are made entertaining, with a view to supplant the corrupt and vicious little books and ballads which have been hung out at windows in the most alluring forms, or hawked through Town and Country, and have been found so highly mischievous to the Community, as to require every attention to counteract them.

The Sale of the Repository Tracts has been exceedingly great, about two millions having been printed within the year, besides great numbers in Ireland. The success of the Plan has been much extended, not only by the zeal of individuals, but also by the active co-operation of those very respectable Societies which have been formed in various Towns for this purpose. These Societies have not only exerted their influence by circulating the Tracts in their own families, in their schools, and among their dependants, but also by encouraging Bookfellers to supply themselves with them; by inspecting Retailers and Hawkers; giving them a few in the first instance, and directing them in the purchase; also by recommending the Tracts to the occupier of a stall at a fair, and by sending them to hospitals, workhouses, and prisons. The Tracts have also been liberally distributed among soldiers and sailors through the influence of their Commanders. — All that seems wanting, is a little further attention of individuals to supplant the vicious Tracts of the Hawkers by substituting these, which is now doing with success in many instances since these are made so cheap.

The Conductors of the Cheap Repository have resolved to publish the future Tracts on two different sorts of paper; the one of a superior kind for Gentry, who wish to have them bound up together in a better form than could hitherto be done; the other of a kind very inferior, but so much cheaper as to remove an objection made by Shopkeepers and Hawkers, that they do not yield a profit equal to that which they gain by their ordinary books and ballads. The price of the inferior Edition of penny Tracts will be to Gentry 10d. for the Quire containing 24 Tracts; and the others proportionably cheap. The usual further allowance will be made to Shopkeepers and Hawkers.

Two different Editions of the Ballads will be also printed, one in the form of a little book for binding, the other in a very cheap manner in sheets.

The Tracts of the last year may be had bound up in one volume, and many of the ballads which came out in sheets are now printed together in a penny book and bound up with them. The price of this 1st. Volume is 3s. 6d. half bound and lettered.

As the Tracts have been found useful and acceptable in Boarding Schools; those also as well as private Families on sending an Order may be supplied with them every Month, in the same manner as with a Magazine. They will be sent periodically to Societies, Bookfellers, and Individuals. To the Agents of the Societies it is the plan to send Specimens of the Publications gratis every Month. Should any mistake arise, information is requested.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS to the general Fund

Fund having been voluntarily offered, the Conductors with pleasure inform the Friends to the Institution that they shall not for some time stand in need of such assistance.

In order to supply a fund for incidental expenses, and for extending the circulation of the Tracts, the following Subscriptions have been received.

Henry Thornton, Esq. M. P.
Treasurer.
