He went to catch a storky bird,
And thought he could not fail,
Because he'd got a little salt
To put upon his tail.

Then Simple Simon went a hunting,
For to catch a hare,
He rode all day about the streets,
But could not find one there.

He went to eat honey,
 Out of a mustard pot,
 It bit his tongue, until he cried,
 That was all the good he got.

He went to shoot a wild duck,
 But wild duck flew away,
 Says Simple Simon I can't hit him,
 Because he would not stay.

Simon he was sent to market,
 To buy a joint of meat,
 He tied it to his horse's tail,
 To keep it clean and sweet.

He went for water in a sieve,
 But soon it all run through;
 And now poor Simple Simon.
 Bids you all, adieu.
