SIRS. Aving many times confider-ed of the large Extent of - the Constables Office, and how little skill or knowledg many of you have, who are often called to take upon you the same Office, and also how few Authors there be who have writ on this Subject, Mr. Lambert, Mr. Wingate, and Mr. Sheppard being the Chief, whofe Rules at this day are very unsafe for the Constables to square their Actions by : for Mr. Lambert's Book being a Discourse principally of the Common Law Cafes, is now much altered by Statute fince, and that Book of the Office of a Constable Fathered upon Mr. Wingate, I am verily per-Swaded was none of kis Work; for Ao there there are some unwarrantable Authorities and grofs Errors in it which could not have flipped his ingenious Pen if the Work had been his ; and for Mr. Sheppard's Book, it is ftuft full of Acts and Ordinances of that Convention at Westminster (which in the late times of Usurpation and Rebellion was owned for a Parliament) which Ordinances are now of no force; Therefore none of these being safe and warrantable Rules for the Constables to walk by, but blind Guides to lead them into the by-paths and crooked Meanders of many Errors ; I thought thereupon that some little Treatife of this Subject might not only prove very useful, but also very beneficial for the generality of People of this Kingdom; which consideration bath occasioned me to publift this small unpolified Epitome; and though I know the Book will fall under many hard Cenfures of those who are far better able to undertake the

the Work, yet I hope, Dear Friends, my willingness to contribute anything to your Service, though but a Mite, doth claim your favourable Acceptance of my pains; Remembring the old faying ----- eft voluisse faits; and there is nothing of so little regard, but hath something of worth in it, and I despair not of some profit hence to you for whom it is intended, and for whose ease, satisfaction and direction it was collected and published by him, kind Friends, whose ambition and desire is, and shall be

GUIDE FOR CONSTABLES, &c.

CHAP. I.

Of the Derivation of the word Conftable, how many forts of Conftables, the Antiquity of the Office, the feveral Appellations of this Officer in feveral places, who ought to be chosen to the faid Office, and how and where to be sworn, with the form of the Conftables Oath.

HE word Conftable is derived or compounded of two old Saxon words, Cuninge, or Kininge, which fignifieth King, and Stable fignifying Stability; flewing that these ancient Officers were repu-B ted ted to be as the flability or flay of the King and Kingdom : Co. 4. Part. Inft. fol. 123. Lamb. Office of Conft. 5. & Dalt. 7. P. c. 15. fol. 46.

There are only two forts of Conftables, of whofe Office this Treatife maketh particular mention, and that is High Conftables of Hundreds, and Petty Conftables in Towns and Parifhes.

Now by the opinion of fome men, thefe High Conftables were first ordained to be chosen by the Statute of Winebester, and they were to make view of Armour twice every year, and to present before the Justices alfigned defaults of Armour, Watches, Highways, Hue and Cry; and also such as lodged Strangers for whom they would not answer. Lamb. 5. Rastall 379. C. D. 13 E. 1. c. 6. Dalton's J. P. c. 16. fol. 46.

And that the Petty Conflables in Towns and Parifhes, were after devifed for the aid of the High Conflables of Hundreds, about the beginning of the Reign of King Edward the Third. Lamb. Duty Confl. pag. 9.

But others are of opinion, that the High

High Constables were Confervators of the Peace within their feveral Hundreds and Limits, by the ancient Common Law. Crompt. 6. & 222. 12 H. 7. fol. 18.

And that whereas the Sheriffs of Counties at the first had the Government of their Counties committed to them, that afterwards by reason of the multitude of people, it being then too great a task for one man to undertake, thereupon Hundreds were deduced and derived out of the Countreys, and in every one of them was ordained a Confervator of the Peace, who was called the High Conftable; and after this Boroughs or Towns were made, and within every one of them alfo was ordained a Confervator of the Peace, who is called the Petty Conftable : and this was long before the time of King Edward the Third, as appears by the derivation of the words, and that they were in the time of the Sazons, fo that it may feem as well the High Conftables, as the Petty Constables and their Authorities, were by the Common Law; and that the old Statutes concerning them, are but a Recital of the B 2 ancient Common Law, 12 H.7. fol. 18. a. Dalton's J. P. c. 16. fol. 46.

Now there be other Officers of much like Authority to the Constables, as the Bursholders in Kent, the third Burrough in Warwickshire, and the Tythingman, Borrough-head, or Headburrough or Chief Pledge in other places ; but yet the Office of a Constable is diflinct and (as it feemeth) is of greater Authority then these other : for it is held by fome that these Bursholders, Thirdburroughs, Tything-men, &c. being in a Town or Parish where a Constable is, that in fuch cafe they cannot meddle, because the Constables be (in comparison of them) Head Officers, and that the others are but as Affiftants to the Constables in all Services of his Office when the Conftable is prefent, and in his absence then these others are to attend the fervice ; and that there are many other things which the Constables may do, and wherewith the Bursholders and the reft cannot meddle at all; and yet in Towns where there be no Conftables, and that the Bursholders, Tythingmen, &c. be there the only Officer ; for the Peace, as also in

in fuch cafe where the Power or Authority of a Burfholder, Tythingman, &c. is declared to be equal with the power of the Conftable, in all fuch cafes and things, their Office and Authority be in a manner all one. See 1 Jac. c. 7. Lamb. pag. 4,6,9,51,52,53,54,55. Dalton's J. P. cb. 1. fol. 3, 4.

Where any Statute doth appoint offenders to be punished by the Constable, or other inferiour Officer, in such case the Tythingman, Headburrough, &c. may do it, for they are supposed to be inferiour Officers to the Constable. Dalton's J. P. ch. 1. fol. 4.

Note that these Officers are to be attendant to Court-Leets, Justices of the Peace, and Coroners, for the exccuting of their Warrants, within their feveral Precincts.

And now as to the choice of these Constables, you shall understand that the Law requires that every Constable be Idoneus homo, that is, apt and fit for the execution of the faid Office, and he is faid in Law to be Idoneus, who is indued with these three things, honesty, knowledge and ability. Co. 8. lib. Rep. fol. 41. in Grieflyes case there.

B 3.

Firft,

First, he ought to have Honesty to execute his Office truly, without malice, affection or partiality. Secondly, Knowledge to understand what he ought to do. And laftly, Ability as well in substance or estate, as also in body, that fo he may attend and execute his Office diligently, and not, through impotency of body or want, to neglect the place; for Constables chosen out of the meaner fort, they are either ignorant what to do, or dare not do what they should, or are not able to fpare the time to execute the Office : they ought therefore to be of the ableft fort of men, and are not to be chosen either by Houfe or other Cuftom, if they be not fit perfons for the Office. Co. 8. lib. rep. fol. 41.

And if any one fhall be chosen Conftable, which is not thus qualified and inabled, he may by Law be discharged of his faid Office, and another fit man may be appointed in his place. Co. 8. hb. rep. fol. 42.

Clergy-men, Juffices of the Peace, Lawyers, Phyficians, Attorneys, Women, whether Maids or Widows, Madmen, Infants, old, fick, decrepit perfons, fons, nor poor people, are not to be chosen to the Office of Constable.

And note, that a man is to ferve this Office in refpect of his perfonal abode and place of Refiancy, and not in refpect of his Land in another place, for if he have Lands in one place, and keep house in another place, he must serve where he lives, and not where his Lands lie.

A cuftom in a Parish or Town, that the Office of Constable shall go by the house, is not good; for if a woman have an house there, the is eligible, which is against Law; but a custom that every man, sufficient in the place, shall ferve the Office himself, or find a sufficient man to ferve it, may be good. Cro. 1. Part. Rep. fol. 283.

A Leet chooling unable or unfit Conftables is caufe of forfeiture of the Leet, and fuch choce is void, and two Juffices of Peace, upon complaint to them made, may remove fuch a Conftable, and choofe and fwear a new one. Dalt. J. P. c. 16. fol. 47. Steels Rep. f. 21. Mich. 22 Car. 1. B.R. Bolfted's 1 part. Rep. fol. 174.

The High Constables are most usu-B 4 ally ally chofen at the Quarter Seffions of the Peace for that County, and are either to be fworn there, or elfe by warrant from the Seffions to be fworn elfewhere; and if it happen that they be chofen out of the Seffions, then ought they to be chofen by the greater number of the Justices of that Division where they dwell. Lamb. 190. 13 E. I. Stat. Winch. Dalt. J. P. cb. 16. fol. 46.

And in fuch manner as they are to be chosen, in the same manner, and by the like Authority are they to be removed; for eodem modo quo quid constituitur, difsolvitur.

By the Stat. of the 34 H. 8. Two Juffices of the Peace, the one being of the Quorum, may appoint the High Conftables in Wales, 34 H. 8. cb. 26.

Now for the Swearing and choofing of petty Conftables, it properly belongs to the Court-Leet, but in ancient time they were yearly appointed by the Sheriffs in their turn, and were there fworn and received their Oath, and fo they may flill. Bacons ufe of the Law, pag. 5, 6. Dalt. J. P. c. 16. fol. 47. & cb. 121. fol. 366.

And

And now by the Stat. 14 Car. 2. It is provided that if any Conflable of a Parish die, or remove, that any two Justices may make and fwear a newone, to continue till the next Leet or Quarter Seffions, and then the Steward of, or in the Leet or Juffices at the Selfions are to fwear another, or to approve of him that is chosen; and if any fuch Officer shall continue in hisplace above a year, the Juffices at their Quarter Sellions may discharge him, and put another in his place, till the Lord of the Leet shall keep his Court and place in another. 14 Car. 2. ch. 12.

Conftables lawfully chofen, if they fhall refufe to be fworn, the Juffices of Peace may bind them over to the Affifes, or Setfions of the Peace, Dalt. J. P. cb. 16. fol. 47. vide Crawlyes Cafe. Cro. 1. Part. fol. 409.

A Conftable of an Hundred or Parifh, may not make a Deputy to execute his Office, as fome hold opinion, but a Deputy may do under him many parts of his Office in his Name, fo fiill as the Conftable mult answer for it. Bolftrods 3 Part. Rep. fol. 77,78.

TC

If any Action be brought against a Justice of Peace, Maior, or Bailiff of a Corporation, Headborough, Port-Reeve, Constable, Tythingman, Collector of Subsidies or Fisteens, Churchwardens, Sworn-men, Overseers of the Poor, or their Allistants, for any thing done by reason of their several Offices, they may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in Evidence. 7 Jac. c. 5. 21 Jac.c. 22. Wingate Abr. St. little Evidence.

And all Actions, brought againft fuch Officers, must be laid in the County where the fact was done, and in cafe where the verdict passes for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff is Non-fuit, or difcontinues his fuit, these Officers shalt be allowed double costs, to be recovered as other Defendants recover their costs. 7 Jac. c. 5. 21 Jac. c. 12. Wingate Abr. Stat. Tit. Evidence.

The form of the Constables Oath is as followeth:

CHAP. II.

The Constables Office about Affrays.

IF any man thall make an Affray or Affault upon another in the prefence of the Conftable, or if any man in his prefence shall threaten to kill, beat or hurt another, or shall be in a fury ready to break the Peace, in every of thefe cafes the Constable may commit the Offenders to the Stocks, or to fome other fafe cuftody for the present (as the quality of the perfon requireth) until fuch time as he can carry them before fome Juffice of the Peace, or to the Gaol, until they shall find Sureties for the Peace, which Surety the Conftable himfelf may also take by an Obligation to be fealed and delivered to the Kings. use: and so was the opinion of Walmefly, Owen, and Beamond, in the Argument of Skarrett's Cale, Trin. 35 Eliz. Co. Ban. Rot. 1458. But my Lord Anderfon faid that the Conftable ought to carry the parties that he should fee breaking the Peace, before a Juffice to find Sureties for the Peace ; and at this day.

In cafe where the Conftable had taken fuch an Obligation to the use of the King, he was to fend it into the Exchequer or Chancery, from whence process thould be awarded to levy the debt, if the Peace were broken. Dalton's J. P. c. 1. fol. 5. Bacon's use of the Law 5.

The Conftable in the Kings Name ought to command Affrayers, or fuch as are about to make an Affray, to avoid or furceafe, and to depart on pain of Imprifonment; and if the Conftable being prefent at an Affray, doth not his beft endeavour to part them, it being prefented by the Enqueft at the Seffions of the Peace, fuch Conftable may be fined for it. Dalt. J. P. e & fol. 33.

If any perion be dangeroully hurt in any Affray, the Conftable (or any other perion) may arreft the offender, and carry him to a Juffice of Peace, who is either to Bayl him till the next Gaol Delivery, or to commit him to the.

If the Affrayers will not depart but thall draw weapons, or give any blow, the Constable may command affistance of others for the pacifying of the Affray, and may justifie the beating cr wounding of them, if they make refistance, and if either the Constable, cr any in his Afsistance be flain, it is murder in the Affrayers. Lamb. 135. 1 H.7. 7.3 H. 7. 10. Co. 4. lib. rep. fol. 4. & Co. 9. lib. rep. fol. 66.

The Conftable (if the Affray be great or dangerous) may in the Kings Name make Proclamation that the Affrayers thall keep the Kings peace, and depart, &c. And if the Affray be in an houfe, and the doors thut, the Conftable may break into the houfe to fee the peace kept, though none of the parties have taken any hurt; and if the Affrayers. fly into another mans houfe, the Conftable upon freth purfuit may break into fuch houfe, and apprehend the Affrayers, frayers. Dalt. J. P. cb. 8. fol. 34.33. Lamb. 135.7 E. 3.19.

And where the Affrayers fly into another County, the Conftable feeing this, may freshly purfue, or caufe them to be purfued, and to be taken there : but then in fuch cafe the Conftable can meddle no further (but as every private man may do) to carry them before fome Justice of Peace of the County where they are taken, to caufe them to find Sureties for the Peace, Crompt. 146. b. @ 172. b. Note that after the Affray be over, the Conftable without a Warrant cannot arreft the Affrayers, except fome perfon be in peril of death by fome hurt there received; but before the Affray begun, and during the time thereof, he may arreft them without Warrant, 38 H, 8. Bro. faux Impr. 6. Dalt:

Where the Affray is made out of the prefence or fight of the Conftable, and one cometh to the Conftable and telleth him of it, and witheth him to go and fee the Peace kept, and the Conftable will not, in fuch cafe it is held by fome that the Conftable fhall not be fined by the Juffices at their Seffions upon prefentment thereof by the grand Enqueft; but quere hereof, for it is againft his Oath if he do not fee the Peace kept, Crompt. 146. Dalt. J. P. cb. 8. fol. 33.

Note that it is properly no Affray, unless there be some weapons drawn, or fome firoke given or offered to be given, or other attempt to fuch purpole: for if men shall contend only in hot words, this is no Affray, neither may the Constable for words only lay hands upon them, unless they shall threaten to kill, beat, or hurt one another, and then may the Constable arreft fuch perfons, and carry them before a Juffice of Peace, to find Sureties for the keeping of the Peace; and yet fuch threatning as aforefaid, is no Affray. CHURCH-WARDENS.

CHAP. I.

The Antiquity of the Churchwardens Office, and how they are to be chosen.

^{1.} IT is faid by fome Hiftorians, that Dionyfius, in the year of our Lord 267. divided both in Rome and other places, Churches, Church-yards, and Parifhes to Curates, and Dioceffes to Bifhops, and this was about 87 years after Baitain had received the Chriftian Faith : For though Hiftorians do not all agree when the Chriftian Faith was firft G 4 planted planted here, yet it is thought by most of them to be in the Reign of King Lucin, about the year of our Lord 180. but how long after it was before thefe Officers called Churchwardens were appointed, it cannot certainly be known; but Mr. Lambers and other Authors do agree, that they are very antient Officers, and by the antient common Law they were, and are still to take care, fee to, and preferve the Goods of the Church, viz. the Church Books, Communion Cups, Oc. and other decent Ornaments and furniture of the Church, which they do find there at their coming into their Office.

2. As to the choice of these Officers it is appointed by the Book of Canons printed in the first year of King James, An. Dom. 1604. That all Churchwardens, Questmen, Sidemen, or Affistants in every Parish shall be chosen by the joynt consent of the Minister and the Parishioners, if it may be: But if they cannot agree upon such a choice, then the Minister shall choose one, and the Parishioners another is and without such a joynt or feveral choice, none shall take upon them them to be Churchwardens, neither fhall they continue any longer then one year in that Office, except perhaps they be chofen again in like manner; and these Officers are to be yearly chofen in Easter week. Can. 89, 90.

3. But note, where there is an antient cultom in any Parilh for the choice of Churchwardens contrary to this Canon, in fuch cafe the cultom is to be obferved before the Canon, as appears by feveral Cafes hereafter mentioned.

4. If the Parishioners of a Parish have used time out of mind, &c. to elect one Churchwarden, and the Vicar another, and afterwards a Canon is made that the Vicar shall elect two, and he doth so accordingly, and the Parishioners elect one according to their cuftom, and the Ordinary difallows him, and establisheth the other two elected. by the Vicar; in this Case a prohibition shall be granted. Of the Antiquity of the Officers, their Qualifications, and how and when to be chosen.

1. THis Office of Overfeers of the Poor, is a Name and Office of great Excellency and Antiquity, and may befeem the best and not the meanest men in a Parish; for this is not the least Office, to be called Overfeers of the Poor; for as God himself hath a special respect to the mission of the Poor, so they be like God which provide for the necessities of the Poor 2. Now

2. Now it is certain, that the Antiquity of this Office is above fixteen hundred years standing, as appears by holy Writ; for we find St. Stephen the Proto-martyr, a man full of Faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicensor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicelas a Proselyte of Antioch, chosen to this Office, as appears Alis 6.5. and see Alis 20. & 28. & 1 Cor. 16.2, 3.

3. As for the qualifications of these Officers, they ought to be fubftantial perfons, having competency of Wealth, Wisdom, a good Conscience, and of honest report; see Acts 6, & 3. Dalt. J. P. c. 40.f, 93.

4. Now these Overseers of the Poor, here with us in England, are certain Officers appointed yearly to be joyned and allistant to the Churchwardens of the Parish, in the over-fight and ordering of the Poor of the Parish, and they are to be appointed by two or more Justices of the Peace of the County (whereof one to be of the Quorum) dwelling in or near the Parish or Division, &c. who are yearly under their Hands and Seals, at Easter, or within a month month after to appoint 4, 3, or 2 fubftantial Hou(holders, (according to the greatnefs of the Parifh to be joyned with the Churchwardens of the Parifh) and all thefe together are to look to the Poor of the Parifh; for the Churchwardens of the place have an equal power and charge with the Overfeers, and may be punihed for their neglect, if they refufe to meddle herein,43 El.2.21. Jac. c.28. Dalt. J.P.c 40.f.93. Wingate's Stat. Tit. poor People.

5. The major part of these Officers, without the reft of them may do any, thing belonging to their Office. But they are to have the allowance and confent either in particular or in general of Two Justices of the Peace (Quor. unus) to every thing they do about their Office. And these Officers, or fuch of them as fhall not be let by just excuse, (to be allowed by two Juflices) are to meet monthly in the Church on Sunday after Evening Prayer, and there they are to confider of some meet directions about their Office, and they are to use all possible diligence in their Office, on pain to forfeit for every such Default twenty chillings fhillings. 43. El. c. 2. Wingat's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

6. The Inhabitants of the Townthips within the great Parifhes of Lancashire, Cheshire, Derbyshire, York shire, Northumberland, Bishoprick of Durham, Cumberland and Westmoreland, are to take care for the Poor of their Townships and Villages only, and are yearly to choose Overseers for the Poor within their several Townships and Villages: And these Officers shall have the same power in the place where they are chosen, for the relief of the Poor there, and forfeit the like penalties for their neglect, as such like Officers for intire Parishes shall do. 14 Car. 2. c. 12.

7. And if it happen that Overfeers be not appointed according to the 43 El. then every Juffice of Peace, or Head Officer of that Division or Corporation (hall forfeit 5 l. to be levyed by a Selfions Warrant, and imployed to the use of the Pour of the Parishes where such default is made, 43 El. cb. 2 Wingate's Stat. Of the Several Sorts of Poor People, and what Poor the Overfeers are to provide. for and relieve, or fet to work.

8. NOte, That there are three forts or degrees of Poor, as first the Poor by impotency and defect, as the aged and decrepit that are paft their labour; the Infant Fatherlefs and Motherlefs, and not able to work, the perfon naturally difabled either in Wit or Member, as an Ideot, Lunatick, Blind, Lame, &c. not being able to work, and the perfon vifited with grievous fickness or difease, though cafually, yet thereby for the time being impotent. All thefe the Overfeers are to provide for, that they have neceffary Relief and Allowances proportionable and according to the continuance and measure of their maladies and needs, and of these it may be faid, Si non pavisti, occidisti : Dalt. J. P. c. 40. f. 100.

Dalt. J. P. ch. 40, f. 100.

ch. 40. f. 100. 10. Then laftly, The thriftlefs poor, as the riotous and prodigal perfon, that confumes all with play or drinking, Oc. the diffolute perfon, as the Strumpet, Pilferer, Oc. the Slothful perfon that refuseth to work, & c. and the Vagabond that will abide in no place or fervice; and for all these the House of Corre-Ction is the place where they are to be fent to, and being of able bodies there they are to be held to hard labour, and to maintain themfelves by their labour and work, without charging the Town or Countrey for any allowance. 7 Jac. cb. 4. Dalt. 7. P. cb. 40. f. 101. II. But

11. But it feemeth that if any of thefe last fort of Poor happen to prove impotent, and also in cases of manifest extremity, then they are to be relieved by the Town. Dalt. J. P. c. 40. f. 101.

12. If the Parents be able to work, and may have work, they are to find their Children by their labour, and not the Parish ; but if they be overcharged with Children, they may have help, by having fome of their Children put out Apprentices by the Overfeers. 14. But note, That if a man marry a Grandmother that hath no Estate, the Grandfather in Law is not chargeable: But if the hath an Effate caufed without fuch marriage, or that comes after marriage by descent or otherwise to her, here he may be charged : But where they have tailed themfelves to an Efate by their own Industry there it is doubtful. But in no cafe shall he be charged longer than his wife lives ; and it seems also Bastard Children are not within this Law, neither can the Justices do any thing herein against a man that lives out of their County. See Boulfred's Rep. 2. part. f. 245, 246, 247.

15. No Poor may beg but in their own Parish, and there by licence of the Overseers of the Poorsand they may not licence them to beg in the High ways there, and without the licence of the Overseers they may not beg at all. Ref. Judges Dalt. J. P. c. 40. & 31. f.96. & 78.

57. If a Woman be delivered of a Bastard Child in one Parish, and then go into another Parifh with her Child, in this cafe the Child after it is nurfed, is to be fent to and fetled in the place where it was born, and not to remain with the Mother. Refol. Judges 1633. Sed. 21.

58. If A. have a Baftard Child by B. born in Dale, 10 years fince, and the Reputed Father marries another Woman, and they breed the Child 10 years in the Parish of Sale, and the Mother of the Child is in Service all this while, and a Single Woman, the Reputed Father dies ; in this cafe the Child is to be fent to the Mother first, to be mainrained by her if the be able, and if not, it must be kept by the Parish of Sale; where it was fetled with the Father 10 years. Rulftr. Rep. 2. part. f. 350.

59. If a Woman have a Bastard Child, and is like to be chargeable to the Parifh, and the is fent to the Houfe of Correction for it (as the may be by Law) in this cafe it hath been queffioned whether the Child must go with her, or remain in the Town where it was born, (or fetled with the Mother) and and there to be relieved by the work of the Mother, or by Relief from the Reputed Father, upon the 18 El. and it feems most reasonable to be so; and yet the common opinion and practice is otherwise, (to wit) to fend the Child with the Mother to the House of Correction: And this may also feem reasonable where the Child sucketh on the Mother. Dalt. J. P. Ch. 11. fo. 39.

60. If a Woman with Child be fent to the Houfe of Correction, and there be delivered, the Child must be fent back to the Parish where the Woman came from, there to be relieved. Also if a Woman be travelling, and have her Child with her, and is apprehended and fent to the Goal, and there hanged for Felony, in this case the Child shall not be chargeable to the place where the Goal is, but to the place where it was born (if it can be known) otherwise to the place where the Mother was apprehended; and fo was the opinion of Sir Nicholm Hide 3 Car. 1.

61. The Two next Juffices (Quor. unus) in or next to the limits where the Parifh Church is, may take order as well for the punishment of the Mother K and 194 and reputed Father of a Bafiard Child, as alfo for the relief of the Parifh where it is born, by charging the Mother and Father with the payment of money weekly towards the keeping of it, or otherwife; And if the Mother or Father perform not the Juffices order therein, they are to fuffer imprifonment without Bayl, except he or the give Security to perform, or elfe to appear at the next Seffions, and abide the order of the Juffices there, if any be made there; and if none be made, then to ftand to the first order. Dalt. J. P. Ch. 11. fo. 37, 38. 18 El. Ch. 3.

62. Note, That this Order may be made by any two Juffices of the County (Quor. MNUS) as it is held by fome, but moft properly by the two next Juffices, and the queftion muft be about fuch a Baftard Child as is like to be a charge to the Parifh; and the Security muft be given to the Parifh where the Child is born, to fecure the Parifh from the charge of the Child, or to keep the Child: it muft be a Parifh within the County where the two Juffices have power, and the Order muft be certain how long the Reputed Father

Father must keep the Child, fecure the Parifh, Oc. and it must be made against the perfon that is sufpected to have gotten the Bastard Child, and not against another perfon to contribute towards it, becaufe it was gotten in his house, ore. and the Order must exprefs the Child by the name of a Baflard Child, and not the reputed Child of fuch an one, and the Justices for the better discovery of the matter, may upon Oath examine the Mother her felf concerning the reputed Father, the time, Grc. The Overscers Office in making of Rates, And passing Accounts.

64. T Hefe Officers, or the greater part of them (for the doing and performing of the things they have in charge) may raife weekly, or otherwife by Taxation of every Parfon, Vicar, and other Occupier of Land, Houfe, or Tythes, Cole-mines, or faleable Underwoods, within the Parifh, Town, &c. fuch a fum as they fhall think fit; and this Rate they mult have allowed and confirmed under the hands of two Justices (Quor. unw) and then by Warrant from them, or any any other Two Juffices (Quor. unus) they may levy, by diffrefs and fale of the Goods of the party refuging to pay, the faid Tax, rendring the Overplus to the owners, and in default of Diffrefs, two fuch Juffices may commit the party to Pri'on, there to remain without Bail till it be difcharged by him. 43 El. 65. Now these Rates ought to be well and truly made, according to mens visible Estates, real and personal, within the place only, and not for any Estate elsewhere; at Lincoln Affizes 9 Car. 1. by Justice Hutton and Crook.

66. Note, That a Parish in Reputation shall be a Parish within this Law 3 fo that if A. be an ancient Parish that hath Officers in it, and there be a Town within this Parish, which for a long time hath been used and reputed as a Parish, and hath all Parochial Rights, as Churchwardens, &c. here this place may be Rated as a Parish towards the Poor. 67. This Tax must be fet upon the K 3 TeTenants and Occupiers of Lands; and not upon the Land-Lords living within or without the Parish; for the Tenant only is chargeable for the Land. Bulfred's 1. Part. Rep. fo. 354.

68. The Parlon, having a full Tenth Part of the Profits of the Place, may be rated to a Tenth Part. Refol. Judges. 1633. Sett. 32.

69. He that doth occupy Lands in his own hands, lying in feveral Parifhes, he must be charged in every Parish for his Land lying therein, only according to the proportion thereof, and no more; but for his personal Estate it feems reasonable he should be charged for it in the place where his person is: All Lands Ancient Demeass Guildable, and Copyhold, are to be charged with these Rates, which ought to be according to the value, or by the pound, and not according to the quantity. Sed confuetudo tollit Legem.

70. The Rate for Stock or Goods is thought reafonable to be fet after the proportion of Lands (viz.) an 100 pound in flock to be rated after 5 or 6 pound a year in Land.

a man may be rated beyond his ability, as where one brings a charge upon a Parifh; or under any pretence brings in a man that may be chargeable in a Parifh, he may, if there be caufe for this, be raifed in his Rate to the full value of his Eftate; and fo was the Opinion of Sir Nicholas Hide. Dalt. J. P. Ch. 40. fo. 97.

72; Where the Inhabitants of any Parish are not able to relieve their Poor, any two Justices (Quor. If any Parish shall extend into two Counties, or part thereof to lie in any City or Corporate Town where they have Justices; Then the Justices of every County, &c. are to intermeddle only within their own limits; and every of them respectively within their limits are to execute this Law concerning the nomination of Overfeers, binding of Apprentices, granting Warrants

CHAP. I.

Of the Choice of these Officers, how many Sorts of ways there are, with some few General Cases concerning High-ways.

1. THESE Supervifors or Surveyors of the High-ways are Officers yearly chosen by the Constables and Churchwardens of every Parish: and by the 14 Car. 2. the Churchwardens, Constables, or Tythingmen of every Parish, Town or Hamlet, for the time being, are upon Monday

Monday or Tuesday in Easter-week, with the advice of the major part of the Inhabitants to choose two or more sufficient Inhabitants of the Parish, Town, or Hamlet, to be Surveyors of the High-ways for the year following, and they are to give notice thereof in writing to the persons chosen next Sunday after; and for default of fuch choice, the Constable, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of every Parish, Town, or Hamlet, sol for feit and loose 5l. 14 Car. 2. 2. And after choice made of these Officers, as aforesaid, and notice given them, they are forthwith to take the Office upon them, on pain to forfeit 20 s. 2, 3 P. M. Ch. 8. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. Higb-ways.

3. The Conftables and Churchwardens are then also to appoint fix days betwixt then and Midfummer, to be fet apart for the amendment of the High-ways, and must give publick notice thereof in the Church the next Sunday after Easter. 5 El. Cb. 13. 23 P. M. Cb. 8. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. Higb-ways.

4. Notes

4. Note, That there are three kind of ways, (to wit) first a Foot-way, called Iter quod est jus eundi, vel ambulandi bominis. Secondly, a Foot-way, and an Horfe-way, called actus ab agendo, and this vulgarly is called a Pack or Drift way, and is both Foot-way and Horfeway. Thirdly, a Cart-way, Oc. called Via or Additus, (and this containeth the other two, and a Cart way alfo) for this is jus eundi, vehendi, & vehiculum & jumentum ducendi; and this is two-fold. to wit, Via Regia, the Kings High-way for all men, & communis Strata, belonging to a City or Town, or between Neighbours. Dalt. J. P. Ch. 26. fo. 67.

5. Note, That the Kings High-way (or Via Regia) leading either to the Market, or from Town to Town, the Freehold and Soil thereof, and the intereft of all Trees, and other fuch Profits thereupon growing, do belong to the Lord of the Soil, or the Lord of the Mannor, and therefore fuch Lords are chargeable to cut down the Trees and Bufhes growing in fuch Highways; and it is called the Kings Highway, for that the King at all times hath therein Paffage for Himfelf and his People,

People, and may punish all Nusances therein, though otherwise the Interest be in the Lord to bring his Action for digging therein, or other like Trespass there done. Dalt. J. P. 6. Generally the owner of the Soil on both fides of the way thall have the Trees growing in the way: But the Lord of a Rape, within which there are Ten Mannors, may prefcribe to have all the Trees growing within any High-way within fuch Rape, although the Mannor or Soil adjoyning belong to another perfon, for the ufage and taking of the Trees is a good badge of Ownerthip. P. 11. Jac. B.R. between Sir Tho. Pelbam, & Wiat, & Blake, Rolls Cafes. 1. Part. fo. 392.

7. Where any perfon fhall inclofe any part of the High-way, fuch perfon fhall be charged to amend the Highway next adjoyning to the faid Inclofure. And if one man have inclofed on one fide, and another man on the other fide, they thall be both charged to mend the the fame way. Dalt. J. P. Ch. 26. fo. 69. and fee Tr. 10. Car. 1. B. R. Sir Edward Duncomb's Cafe, Cro. 3. Part. Rep. & 6 Jac. & 19 Jac. fo Refolved. Rolls Cafes 1. Part. fo. 390.

8. But otherwife generally Highways must be fufficiently amended at the charge of the whole Town: And it is not enough for the Inhabitants to do their full Six days work yearly; except their ways be all well and fufficiently repaired thereby; For if all their faid ways be not fufficiently amended, the whole Town may be Indicted therefore: and if Six days work in the year will not ferve to amend them, the Surveyors may, yea, must appoint more days. Dalt. J. P. Cb. 26. fo. 69. 14 Car. 2. Ch. 6.

9. The owner of Lands, if he be not the occupier thereof, ought not to be charged towards the repair of the common High-ways; but the Tenant who occupies the Lands is to be charged. Hill. 11. Car. 1. Br. in one Foster's Case, per Curiam, Rolls Cases. 1. Part. fo. 390.

14. Now for the further opening of these things, note, That it is faid that a Plow-land is not of any certain content, but ordinarily it is fo much as one Plough may Plough in one year, which in some Countries is more, and in some lefs, according to the heavinefs of the Soil. 17. He that keepeth a Plough or Draught for carriage, although he occupieth little or no Land, but carrieth or plougheth for other men,yet it feems he is to fend his Cart to the Highways; and if a man keep only two Horfes and a Cart for his own bulinefs, in this cafe it feems he is to come with his Cart and two Horfes with a man to manage them. Vide Dalt. J. P. Ch. 26. fo. 72.

18. It is held by fome, that fo many Ploughs or Draughts men have, and use frequently about their own business in Summer, fo many they are to bring with them to the High-ways; fo that if a man have one Plough and five or fix Horfes, and shall plough feven or eight fcore Acres of Land, and shall usually go in the Summer time with two two Carts or Draughts; in this cafe, it feems he is to come with two Carts for Draughts to this Service : And he that occupieth 40 or 50 Acres of Land, and keepeth only three Horfes, and one Draught or Cart, he is to come with one Draught or Cart. Vide Dalt. 7. P. Cb. 26. fo. 72.
