DO WE HAVE IT ?

Were you in last week's picture of the sharp-spirited group of supporters which spurred on the Big Green Team at Bishop's?

Our team, our college representatives went to Bishop's considered as underdogs! No longer are we underdogs to Bishop's, for Macdonald showed not only a contending football team called 'Mac Aggies', but, also, a group of whole-hearted supporters who were prepared to yell and sweat to spur their team on to win for Macdonald.

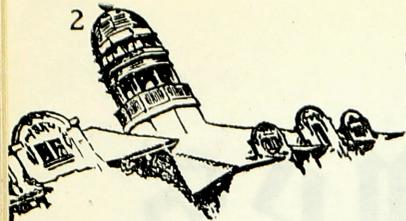

Last Saturday at the Royal Military College our athletes played smart hard games on the field with the intentions of winning for Mac. Yelling and sweat were not found on the side-lines but lived on in the form of a hard-hitting, victorious football team. Quarter back, Dave Mowatt, and tackle, Bob Hamilton, scored touchdowns which paved the way to a 10-0 Aggie victory. Bob Hamilton, the team's captain climaxed the game with a touchdown, and he also clinched the victory by recovering a fumble and running 75 yards for the major score.

Keith Roach scored the single goal in the hard fought soccer game, which resulted with the Aggies on the short end of a 2 to 1 score.

Our winning football team, and our losing soccer team were, on that day, representatives of Macdonald College. They were greeted at the station on their return by a group of nearly 200 students with horns, drums and excited cheering. This greeting, by the students, was to show to those who carried the Green and Gold of Macdonald, their appreciation.

To Bishop's went 150; to the station, to meet a victorious team, went more. To support the team against St. Pats. tomorrow; we will have _____?

We have it! Let us, as a body, prove it.

"MAC AND BILINGUALISM"

There are few Canadians, I should think, who wish to be protected from the French language. It is not only an instrument of grace and beauty, but also the language of many notable writers and philosophers. This particular language is also the mother tongue of more than one-third of Canada's citizens.

However, there are certain people such as the Ottawa Branch of the Protestant Women's Federation of Canada, and possibly students right here on this campus who believe that French is an object of fear. This group feels that those who are of French origin are still trying to reverse the decision of the Plains of Abraham by subtle infiltration into the other provinces of the Dominion.

But, why shouldn't we adopt bilingualism? Canada can then set a shining example for the rest of the world showing that two peoples with different racial origins, languages and religions can get along together. Here on our Macdonald campus we find English the dominant language, but this campus is also located on the edge of a

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor of the Failt-Ye Times,
Macdonald College.

Dear Sir,

As residents of Stewart Hall we wish to reply to the letter you received from the unfortunate souls who consider themselves merely inmates.

May we refer them to Webster's Dictionary which states, 'A warden is an official in certain colleges usually having the duties of dean. A dean is a university officer supervising undergraduates.' The word 'warden' has a wide application, but in this definition we find no mention of a prison, whereas the term 'house-mother' is usually associated with a home for delinquent girls. If 'warden' has a distasteful connotation, the use of the title 'dean of women' may be more fitting. The writers fail to realize the tremendous responsibilities entailed in counselling some three hundred undergraduates. On entering college, one expects to leave sentimentalities behind and respect, as adults, the position of those in authority.

On reading our 'little red rule book' we find: 'The residence is primarily for earnest students and their advantages are the first consideration. The College desires to permit as much freedom as possible but it must be recognized that the occupants of so large a building must exercise an extensive measure of self-restraint in order that all may live comfortably.' In the above quotation we fail to find any implication of prison but rather the basis for a democratic system of modern living.

What a secure feeling for parents of prospective freshettes to know our college residence is under such competent guidance.

It is our hope that as these writers mature they may have the opportunity to visit people of other lands and thus learn to appreciate the superiority of such a system and realize in what esteem it is universally held.

Yours truly,

Residents of Stewart Hall.

The Editor,
The Failt-Ye Times,
Macdonald College.

Dear Sir,

We, the members of the Macdonald Aggies football team, would like to let our supporters know how much we appreciated the rousing welcome we received last Saturday night after defeating R.M.C. Never has a team been received more warmly, nor cheered more lustily than we were when we stepped off the train.

We are all happy that we won the R.M.C. this year, somewhat erasing the terrible defeat of last year, not only because we wanted to win, but also for you, our supporters.

town whose inhabitants and merchants are almost all bilingual. This affords an excellent opportunity for us to bring these two languages together, thus enabling these groups to fully communicate with each other and as a result fully understand each other. For their part, the French Canadians have done much more towards learning English than we have done towards increasing our French vocabulary. This is due largely to necessity, but it has nevertheless been accomplished.

The harmonious relationship between the two groups has been strengthened in recent years by the increase of student exchanges between Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. As a result many of us are drawn into this broader democracy which will give us an infinite knowledge of our native French Canadian language and customs.

You may rest assured that each and every one of us shall do our best in the games to come to insure that your support was not in vain.

With your continued interest, we shall try to give you something to cheer for.

"The Big Green Team".

MAC WOODSMEN PLACE SECOND

On Saturday, October 20, the Annual Intercollegiate Woodsman Competition was held at Forbes Field, overlooking Molson Stadium in Montreal. Twelve teams, representing Macdonald College, Laval University, Sir George Williams College, and McGill University participated.

The Forestry Engineers from Laval placed first, obtaining 672 points out of a possible 800. Macdonald's team were runners up, scoring 612 points.

The team members were Clint Nesbitt (Captain), Art Evans, Jack Ferguson, Eric Lawrence, Jim Ripley, and Bill Seaman.

The feature event of the afternoon for the Aggies was the cross-cut sawing. Macdonald won this contest taking only 51 seconds to saw four discs from a log 10 inches in diameter.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL MEETING

- Agenda:-
1. Business arising out of the minutes.
  2. New business.
  3. Correspondence.

* The Council decided that it was necessary to discriminate as to who should vote on the Student Opinion Poll regarding the wording on the back of the College jackets.

* The lighting facilities for the Green and Gold were discussed and it was decided to vote a sum of money to cover said expenses.

* The Council unanimously agreed that no budget be brought down for any minority club activity not under the Council's jurisdiction.

* The matter of poor medical attention for students stimulated a lively discussion and it was moved and carried that the President and his chosen executive member place the matter in the hands of the one responsible.

"Yes, sir! This machine even brings into view those few places not illuminated by our Spot Lights! Inside the Women's Residence, for instance!"

With the assistance of this handy machine, the Seniors took first place on Skit night, and well did they deserve it. They humorously showed us a Mac Aggie football game in slow motion, which left no one in doubt as to the fair methods of play employed by our boys.

The Frosh took second place with "What's My Crime". One contestant with a guitar executed some queer contortions to the music of "Hound Dog". Nobody guessed his name or his crime but some teenaged girls in the audience were affected to the point of hysterical screams!

Teachers I placed third with their interpretation of a drive into the country. Kids in a car are worse than an untrained puppy in the house! Numerous stops were necessary to facilitate a change of clothes.

Teachers II, Sophs, and Juniors failed to place but all added to a very enjoyable evening. Teachers II "Stopped the Coffin", the Sophs took us around the campus and the Juniors depicted "Fashions at Mac".

STUDENT TEACHERS' ELECTIONS

INTER VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

"As thy days, so shall thy strength be." (Deuteronomy 33:25)

A little clock, which had just been finished by the maker, was put on a shelf in his wareroom between two older clocks who were busy ticking away the noisy seconds.

"Well," said one of the clocks to the newcomer, "So you've started on this task. I am sorry for you; you're ticking bravely now, but you'll be tired enough before you get through thirty-three million ticks."

"Thirty-three million ticks!" said the frightened little clock. "Why I never could do that." and it stood still, instantly, with despair.

"Why you silly thing," said the other clock at this moment. "Why do you listen to such words? It's nothing of the kind. You've only got to make one tick at this moment. There now, isn't that easy? And now another and that's as easy, and so right along."

"Oh! if that's all," cried the new clock, "that's easily done, so here I go." And it started bravely on again, ticking away and not counting the months or the millions. And at the year's end it had made thirty-three million vibrations without knowing it.

Oh, if Christians would only live by the moment, not be the year. 'Day by day' is the limit of the Lord's prayer. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof," said the Lord.

And, "As thy days, so shall thy strength be." is the promise.

A.B. Simpson.

No man ever sank beneath the burden of the day! It is when tomorrow's burden is added to the burden of today that the weight is more than we can bear. It is delightfully easy to live one day at a time.

You are all cordially invited to attend our meetings. A blessing is guaranteed.

BRIGHT FUTURE SEEN FOR CANADA

Lord and Lady Dundee, now on a six-week tour of Canada, visited Macdonald College last Wednesday as guests of the Macdonald College Branch of the Agricultural Institute of Canada. They were welcomed by Dr. H.G. Dion and Prof. Lewis Lloyd. Lord Dundee addressed the members of the A.I.C. on Anglo-Canadian trade.

Lord and Lady Dundee at Macdonald College

In his speech, Lord Dundee predicted that Canada would become the wealthiest and most populous part of the British Commonwealth.

Britain, he said, which now requires licenses on only 20 percent of their imports from Canada, is anxious to remove all restrictions but is hindered from doing so due to the all important dollar shortage. This dollar shortage prevents Britain from buying more of her wheat from Canada. Britain, he said, had not taken advantage of her position as largest importer of wheat to press for unduly low prices, but instead, had continued to pay fair prices along with increased wheat imports. Lord Dundee expressed the idea that depressions in the past had been due, mainly, to an unfair price being given to the primary producer and a relatively high price being set on industrial products. The result---a decrease in the purchasing power on the part of the primary producer.

Lord Dundee explained that the dollar shortage in Britain was caused mainly by an excessive amount of imports from Canada in comparison to the amount of exports to Canada. Britain, he said, was aware of the fact that to balance this trade, she had to produce the right goods, at the right prices and deliver them to the Canadian market, - properly packaged!

On Thursday, Lord and Lady Dundee left Macdonald College to continue their six-week tour of Canada.

OPENING NIGHT

February 19, 1957 and continuing until February 22, 1957.

These dates may seem far away, but preparation actually began as long ago as last Spring. At that time, the nucleus of the GREEN AND GOLD OF '57 executive was elected and during the summer two possible themes were developed.

At the first executive meeting this fall, one theme was accepted, and under the capable supervision of Pat Ostavar, the scriptwriters, Mike Carver and R.D. Hamilton, began their task.

But writing the script is only one aspect of the organization's work. The executive is a hard-working team composed of Producers, Director, Stage, Publicity and Business Managers, Lighting, Music, Choreography, Costume and Scenery Directors, and last, but far from least, the Secretary.

All departments are already functioning actively, presenting regular progress reports at the executive meetings, held Thursday evening of every week.

In what department are YOU interested? Make a choice, then contact the Producers, either Judy Pratt, or Ron Roberts - they will always be ready to hear from you.

NOW is the time for YOU to convert our ideas into a MACDONALD SUCCESS. It is YOUR participation, whether on or behind stage, that results in the "Opening Night".

A CASUAL WELCOME

We of the Frosh class entered cautiously, accustomed to walking into booby traps, and not knowing what to expect this time. Perhaps the Stewart Room was out of bounds to Freshmen, and anyway, who would be bold enough to walk into a room filled with Seniors and sit down! We decided that we would, but even as we straggled in, a wave of laughter and chatter swept the room and rolled out to meet us. Somewhat surprised as not being immediately scoffed at, we gravitated uneasily towards the few unoccupied coloured leather chairs, and sank into them.

The late afternoon sun streamed golden and mellow, through the windows. Someone sat on the piano bench in the corner, his fingers ambling lazily over the keyboard. Several boys in faded green and yellow "Aggie" jackets, and one or two girls lingered nearby, apparently deeply engrossed in the music. A gay and amiable atmosphere pervaded the room. Everyone seemed at ease and content with the world.

Soon, we found ourselves relaxing as well, joining in the pleasant chatter with our superiors, and enjoying this most unusual experience of sitting with these tormentors who, in the past few days, had trodden us beneath their feet and decorated us unmercifully with all manner of ridiculous paraphernalia. It seemed unbelievable, but the seniors did not attempt to make us feel inferior in any way, and it was wonderful.

This is my first memory of the gradual change in attitude of the Seniors towards the Frosh class. They seemed to be casually welcoming us into the Clan, and later, as we left the Stewart Room, we felt, I'm sure, that we had truly entered the Clan at last.

Smith brushed his teeth twice a day with a nationally advertised toothbrush and toothpaste. The doctor examined him twice a year. He slept with the window open. He was on a strict diet with plenty of fresh vegetables. He golfed, but never more than eighteen holes. He neither drank, smoked, nor lost his temper. He was careful to get at least eight hours sleep every night.

The funeral will be held next Thursday. Smith is survived by 18 specialists, 4 health institutes, 6 gymnasia, and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics. He forgot about trains at grade crossings.

One of the most striking things about this beast is its complicated nomenclature (it also has small 1.2.3.4. multihysterio isomers). This is probably because it was discovered - or uncovered - by so many people at the same time, about 50 every year.

Appearance and General Characteristics

Of the Pole Cat family. Noted for quick imperceptible movements, and an ability to completely change direction without altering speed. This animal has to be watched. Being a member of the muskilidae it is naturally much concerned with the production of Aromatic acids, and can at times be quite nauseating.

Limited in variability, but quite incredibly confusing. Frequently interspersed with Eh! Eh! What! Eh! What!

Occupations

Has been known to collect items such as alarm clocks, and this might explain the Ticks. It has an incredible zeal for patenting everything within sight, or just over the horizon, which has been known to leave companions of its own species quite overcome.

It frequently blows bubbles of a glassy substance (at this it is most skilled). It may be a defence mechanism for hiding behind when persued as with the 'Cukoo-spit bug'.

It has initials after its name as a result of strenuous efforts at earlier times, which, according to some observers, rather exhausted it.

Despite all that has been said this is a fine beast. It is genuinely interested in its species, and particularly young struggling members. It also loves yoking.

Swimming Marathon:

Monday, October 29th, begins the annual swimming marathon. Each class has a certain course to follow and their destination is determined by the number in the class. The marathon continues through the week until Friday and lengths may be swum any time the pool is free up until nine o'clock at night. The maximum number of lengths anyone can swim the first time is five, the maximum for the second time is ten, and the maximum for the third and following times is fifteen lengths. Score sheets will be posted on the pool notice board and each girl is to record the number of lengths that she does on the sheet opposite her name. Bonus points will be given for reaching the 1/4, 1/2 and 3/4 mark of the total distance. Five lengths is equivalent to one mile.

Women's Soccer Game

On October 18th, the women's soccer team played McGill here at McDonald. As in the past two years, there was no score in the game, but both teams seemed to be enjoying themselves and it was a pretty wide open match. During the first two quarters, Mac had the ball down at the McGill end most of the time, although we failed to score. In the last half, it was rather a 'see-saw' affair. After the game, the Macdonald girls played hostess to the McGill team in the Stewart Room.

For the past few weeks, the cries of "Failt-Ye", "Failt-Ye", have been heard echoing from the Women's Gym. The annual practices for those interested in cheerleading have been in full swing. Last Thursday night the cheerleaders for this year were chosen and due to the fact that there were only a few girls trying out, the final decision was a difficult choice.

Congratulations Dorothy Anderson, Sheila Workman, Gail Ireland, Carol Smith, Heather MacMillan, Christina Brown, Lorna Henderson and Jeannie Barnes.

Many thanks to all those who gave their time and effort in choosing this year's cheerleaders. These girls will be out at all major sports events to cheer our Big Green Teams. So won't you all come out and give your full support?

The Aggies did well to revenge last year's 50-0 defeat, by outscoring the Cadets last Saturday. Macdonald was in command at all times except during the third quarter, when the Cadets put on an unrewarding drive.

The first major came early in the game when a short R.M.C. kick to Sam Portch was run into the Cadets' 13-yard line. Two plays later, quarterback Dave Mowatt went over standing up, to put Mac into a never relinquished lead. A crack defensive team, on which Al Leach, Keith McCleary, Dave Marsh, Pierre Blondin and Sam Portch starred, left the R.M.C. offence at a standstill. This hard-hitting defensive team held back an R.M.C. third quarter drive which was climaxed by a fumble. Captain Bob Hamilton picked up this fumble in Mac territory and galloped 75 yards for the clinching touchdown.

Outstanding two-way games were played by D'Arcy Little and Gordy MacEachern. D'Arcy displayed plenty of drive on plunges and off tackle plays, on which he gained many valuable yards. Speedy half-back Bob Gardiner went for yards on many of his end sweeps.

Great defensive football by the Big Green Team resulted in a day of victory for Mac.

REV. JAMES THOMPSON

TO GIVE WAR MEMORIAL ADDRESS

GENERAL ASSEMBLY NOVEMBER 6th

The annual general assembly for the 1956-57 session will be held on Tuesday, November 6th at 3:35 p.m., when the awards won by students for this past session will be presented.

For the past few years, the assembly was held in March, and while this year may appear to be a departure from the standard procedure, it is really a reversion to the regular practice. Although it is fitting that the awards for a session be made at the commencement of that session, this had to be suspended due to conflict with the War Memorial Assembly which usually takes place about the same time.

The main address will be delivered by Dr. F. Cyril James, Principal and Vice-Chancellor of McGill, who will be welcomed by the President of the Students' Council, 'Chuck' Callagher.

It should be noted that all 3:30 lab and lecture periods have been cancelled for that day to permit all students to attend.

The Rev. James Sutherland Thomson, M.A., D.D., LL.D., F.R.S.C. (1952) will be the speaker at Macdonald's 11th War Memorial Service to be held in the Assembly Hall on Nov. 9th., 1956.

Rev. Thomson was born in Scotland on April 30th., 1892.
