IT'S a car just built for two. A car that invites confidences. The right car for the smart modern young man or woman.

The upkeep means nothing to you. There's no drain on your pocketbook each week. Think of it . . . 48 to 55 miles on one gallon of gas . . . 1,000 miles on 2 quarts of oil. That leaves you most of your money for enjoyment, doesn't it?

Look it over. Ride in it. Note its comfort. It's amazing speed. We'll be glad to take you for a trial spin.

Whose Toothbrush do you use?

This isn't a funny question. We know you use your own. It's very personal. But how about your clothes?

Your clothes are as personal as your toothbrush!

They are for you—your figure—your body. Yet some men will insist on wearing clothes made for thousands of others. It isn't a luxury to buy your own toothbrush. It isn't a luxury to buy a suit made to measure for you alone.

At Dundee $24 will buy Suit, Topcoat, or Tuxedo as individual, personal and as much your own as your own private toothbrush.

EVERYTHING IS MINIATURE NOW

By SYDNEY H. FLANDERS.

Cars are smaller day by day
The Baby Austin's holding sway,
Everything is Miniature now.
And it really does amaze
That tabloid papers are the craze,
Everything is Miniature now.

They say that soon the world is gonna be
Far too small for you and me
What will then become of us? oh, gee!
F'r I know that people now are getting thinner,
They eat tablets for their dinner ———
Everything is Miniature now.

YES OR NO

By LISABEL BAIKIE.

Yes, No, — your hesitating
Is so - aggra - vating
Dear, from all the times we've been together
I have found your love is like the weather
Night, day — you keep me waiting
Sad, gay — loving, hating
Never twice the same
Can I be to blame
Tell me dear.

Barometers keep saying "Rain" or "Shine"
They don't mean a thing to me
Weather doesn't matter if you're mine
Tell me when that will be
It's true — that you may leave me
But you — won't deceive me
Wondring every day
Whether you will say
Yes or No!

DARK LAUGHTER

By MORTIMER WEINFELD.

I hear dark laughter;
That's what comes after
A little rye and gin —
Gosh, my head aches so.

I see pink monkeys,
I spy striped donkeys,
I hope they don't come — NO!

I feel so weary — I hate to sing,
My eyes are bleary — I just can't see a thing
But

If you feel frisky
Inhale Scotch whiskey —
You'll hear that dark, dark
Laughter too.

THE JURY'S SONG

From "TRIAL BY FURY" By MAX FORD.

"We are ever so free, and it's a pleasure that we Find ourselves where there'll be
Silence in the court.
Our home's never like this
We're never blessed with the bliss
When someone says with a hiss
Silence in the court.
If we lived in this court, 't would be such sport
We could cavort
Our wives could not interfere or make a mean retort.
And if our wives should give us a pain
We could pack them off on a train
And therefore always maintain
Silence in the court."

AN EGYPTIAN LOVE SONG

By W. BRUCE ROSS.

When the moon steals across the sand,
Come, beloved, let us paint our own fairyland:
A far isle, set in an enchanted sea,
On the height,
A palace white,
Beneath, the dark groves call to you and me,
Amarna.
Past are days affairs,
Gone the frets and cares,
Only peace remains.
From the distant shore
Gently echo o'er
Melodies, harmonies, soft refrains.
Sure am I, even though the wait be long,
I'm thine for aye.
'Twill never die,
Our love's immortal song.

COLLEGE GIRL

By GILBERT KING and EUGENE JOLIAT.

She doesn't know her X-Y-Z
She hasn't much inside her head
But Oh Boy, What a College Girl!
She likes to go to nine o'clocks
For in that class she talks and talks
But Oh Boy; What a College Girl;
She's the kind of girl that walks with great big strides
She's not the kind of girl that walks back home from au-to rides
She's got a mop of reddish hair
But she's got "IT" so I don't care
Oh Boy, what a College Girl!

CHOOSING

By S. J. HUNGERFORD.

For - tune won't be kind to me anymore
Seems as though I'll never be gay
Fate has left me with a heavy heart
There is nothing left for me to say
Wish that I could tell from this heart of mine
Which one is the girl I adore
Though I try, each day finds me as the day before, so tell me
Which girl do I love the more ?

Y' gonna get de dickens
From old Nick'n all his ghosts
Say yo' prayers
Cause dey's spirits watchin' yo' — all everywhere
Yo' can't see dem
But dey sees yo'
Beware!

Cross yo' heart, pray your worst
Carry rabbit's foot
Look for horseshoe, four leaf clover
Won't do yo' all no good.
So say good-bye
Get ready fo' to die
De ghosts is comin'
