“SUBSTITUTES”

“IMITATIONS”

“THE SAME THING UNDER AN-OTHER NAME”

“JUST AS GOOD AND CHEAPER”

Beware of the efforts of unscrupulous manufacturers and dealers to divert you from buying well known and reliable preparations through the methods indicated above.

SUBSTITUTES.—An article that can only be sold by substituting it when a standard preparation is ordered should not obtain your confidence, especially in the case of medicinal preparations designed for the serious purpose of relieving pain or warding off disease.

IMITATIONS.—It is practically impossible for anyone to analyse and successfully imitate the standard proprietary medicinal preparations of the day. Don't be deceived by the claim “the same thing under another name”.

JUST AS GOOD AND CHEAPER.—Of all the necessities of life, medicine is the one thing which should be bought on merit only, rather than by price. Stick to the well known article you have found good. The risk of experimenting with unknown medicines is too great for the saving of a few cents.

PERRY DAVIS' PAINKILLER

Is one of the oldest and most widely known family medicines in the world.

Invented by Perry Davis, of Providence, R.I., in 1830, its fame soon spread throughout New England, and from there by sailors, travellers and missionaries, to the most remote islands and countries on the globe.

The uses of PAINKILLER may be divided into two classes:

1st. As an internal remedy to ward off, check and cure attacks of sudden illness especially CRAMPS, COLIC, DIARRHOEA, to check CHILLS, break up COLDS and thus prevent BRONCHITIS, LA GRIPPE, PNEUMONIA.

2nd. As an external remedy or liniment to relieve and cure BURNS, CUTS, BRUISES, CHILBLAINS, FROST BITES, SPRAINS, STINGS.

PAINKILLER is a liquid prepared from vegetable products, entirely safe and harmless, though one of the most effective remedies ever compounded.

PAINKILLER is sold in two sizes, 25c and 50c.

Keep a bottle always on hand for emergencies.

1 T	ASTROLOGY AQUARIUS (♒) begins Jan. 20, 4.12 p.m., and ends Feb. 19, 6.38 a.m. Ganymede, the beautiful Phrygian youth, is represented in this constellation. While tending his father's flocks on Mount Ida, he was taken up to heaven by Ju- piter, who made him the cup- bearer of the gods in place of Hebe. Some suppose that the figure is that of Deucalion, who was placed among the stars soon after the great deluge of Thessaly, 1500 years before the Christian era, while others say it is designed to com- memorate Cecrops, a native of Sais, in Egypt, who led a colony into Attica about 1556 years before the birth of our Saviour, where he in- troduced the arts of refined life, and polished the rude inhabitants. The ancient Egyptians had a super- stition that the rising and setting of Aquarius occasioned the over- flow and recession of the Nile.	7 41	4 26	9 54

1 S	ASTROLOGY PISCES (♊) begins Feb. 19, 6.38 a.m., and ends March 21, 6.11 a.m. According to the Grecian fable this constellation owes its origin to the following circumstance: Venus and her son Cupid, while straying on the banks of the Euphrates, were alarmed by the sudden appearance of the giant Typhon. In their fright they threw themselves into the river and were changed into fishes, in which form they escaped. To preserve the memory of this event, Minerva placed two fishes among the stars. The influence of this constellation was considered more malignant than that of any other; and its emblems are violence and death. Both the Egyptians and Syrians had such an abhorrence of fish, that they never could partake of it as food.	7 23	5 5	11 57

An effective preparation for Sunburn, Bites of Insects, Cuts, Scratches, and Abrasions of the skin from any cause.

Nothing equals Menthol as a soothing, pain-relieving agent, and in the form of a salve it is especially efficacious. When applied to a burn or other injury of the skin, a sense of coolness followed by slight smarting is experienced. In a few minutes this passes away and the pain disappears.

Davis Menthol Salve is harmless, and unlike other ointments, has an agreeable, cleanly odour. It is rapidly absorbed by the skin and is free from greasy substances.

In unique lithographed tins 25c. each.

ASPARGIN PILLS

TRADE MARK

For Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.

Each pill contains:

Extract Asparagus	Podophyllin
Extract Buchu	Potassium Nitrate
Extract Digitalis	Oil of Juniper
Powdered Squills	Methylene Blue

(Medicinal)

The drugs employed in Kidney diseases are called Diuretics, whose function is to increase the quantity of the urine and thus quickly eliminate urea and uric acid, the products of tissue decomposition.

To obtain this increased flow, it is generally agreed that a combination of Diuretics acting in different ways is more efficient than any one employed alone.

Aspargin Pills are easily tolerated by the stomach and exert a sedative action on the urinary passages which renders them especially valuable to alleviate the distress incident to congestion and chronic inflammation of the Kidneys.

Sold in original sealed bottles containing 50 Pills each.

PRICE 50c PER BOTTLE.

ASTROLOGY

LIBRA (♎) begins September 23, 4.34 p.m., and ends October 24, 1.17 a.m. According to the Greek history the balance was made a constellation to perpetuate the memory of Mochus, the inventor of weights and measures. But the seventh sign of the zodiac is uniformly represented by this figure in all the ancient Egyptian and Indian hieroglyphics. It is generally considered as an emblem of the equal days and nights, and also the greater uniformity of temperature over the whole earth at the time when the sun enters this part of the zodiac.

This sign is very ancient, and was considered by the astrologers as one accursed. The Egyptians represented, in this sign, the reign of Typhon, the murderer of Osiris. 1	S	ASTROLOGY SAGITTARIUS (♐) begins November 22, 10.21 p.m., and ends Dec. 22, 11.23 a.m. The famous and accomplished Centaur, Chiron, is represented in this constellation. Chiron was distinguished for his skill in shooting, medicine and music. Archilles, Jason and Aeneas were his pupils. He also taught Hercules astronomy, Aesculapias physic, and Apollo music. He changed himself into a horse to elude the jealous eyes of his wife, Rhea. He was slain by Hercules for having offered an indignity to his bride. The arrow with which he was wounded having been dipped in the blood of Lernaean Hydra, made the wound incurable, even to the father of medicine, Aesculapius himself; and Chiron, in his extreme anguish, besought Jupiter to deprive him of immortality.	6 39	4 48	5 21

RHEUMASAL TABLETS

(TRADE MARK)

ANTI-RHEUMATIC

A combination of Acid Acetyl-Salicylic, Colchicine, Podophyllin and Oil of Wintergreen with 1-50 grain of Codeine Alkaloid to each tablet.

The Salicylates have for years been acknowledged the most useful remedy in the treatment of Rheumatism. The great drawback has been the tendency, both in the form of Acid Salicylic and Sodium Salicylate to cause nausea, vomiting and irritation of the stomach, which precluded their use in many cases.

Acid Acetyl-Salicylic, the form in which the Salicylate is introduced in this preparation, passes unchanged through the stomach and does not, therefore, cause these digestive disturbances.

Acid Acetyl-Salicylic possesses the property of finding its way into the tissues and fluids of the joint cavities, so that the disease is attacked in its most intricate recesses, causing it to be practically recognized as a specific for acute Articular Rheumatism.

Rheumasal Tablets will be found very efficient in the treatment of Neuralgic Headaches, Influenza or La Grippe, Sciatica, Lumbago and all forms of acute and chronic Articular Rheumatism and for Gout.

Bottles containing 50 tablets, 50c.

Sent direct upon receipt of price if your dealer does not stock same.
