THE
Bibliography of Ruskin

A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL LIST

ARRANGED IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

OF THE

PUBLISHED WRITINGS IN PROSE AND VERSE

JOHN RUSKIN M.A.

FROM 1834 TO THE PRESENT TIME

(OCTOBER 1878)

PRICE SIXPENCE.

TO
HENRY BACKHOUSE ESQ.
WHO FIRST SUGGESTED TO THE COMPILER
THE IDEA OF THIS LITTLE BIBLIOGRAPHY
IT IS NOW
GRATEFULLY AND AFFECTIONATELY
INSCRIBED

PRICE SIXPENCE.

INTRODUCTION.

SIMPLE and easy as a List like the present may seem when finished and in the reader's hands, the materials for its compilation have taken many years to collect, and much anxious labour has been spent on its preparation and arrangement. No entry has in any case been made at second-hand; but always with the actual book, pamphlet, magazine, or journal described lying before the compiler. The order adopted is mainly chronological.

It is hardly to be hoped or expected that in the earliest draught of so extensive an undertaking no single lacuna will occur; and, indeed, the Editor has little doubt that several letters to the public journals not enumerated here will yield themselves to more fortunate or more persistent research.

In the meantime he begs to tender his best thanks to those kind friends and correspondents who have furnished him with many valuable additional items which have served to make the Bibliography if not complete or exhaustive, a far nearer approach to completeness than it could otherwise have been.

Among these he would more especially name Robert Somervell, Esq., of Hazelthwaite, Windermere; Peter Bayne, Esq.; Henry T. Wharton, Esq.; Charles Wel-ford, Esq.; J. H. Chamberlain, Esq., of Birmingham; Charles W. Sutton, Esq., of the Manchester Public Free Libraries; Fred. W. Foster, Esq., of Chelsea; T. G. Ashton, Esq.; Mr. George Allen, of Orpington (Mr. Ruskin's publisher); and last but not least the dear and gifted friend to whom the brochure is inscribed.

In the new Preface the author says :—"I have no time nor sight now for the revision of old plates ; and besides I own to a very enjoyable pride in making the first editions of my books valuable to their possessors, who found out, before other people, that these writings and drawings really were good for something. I have retained, therefore, in this edition only the woodcuts necessary for the explanation of the text ; and the two lovely engravings by Messrs Cuff and Armytage will, I hope, render the old volume more or less classical among collectors. The few references to them are withdrawn from the present edition."
