

Indian musical Instruments in the hands of the ^{performer} ~~the~~
In Music plate is the representation of a music-gallery over a triumphal Arch, ~~through~~ through which the great Mogul passed at Agra, a before his fall. The procession consisted of the Emperor, ^{mounted upon an Elephant!} his Wives, Concubines, Eunuchs, great officers of State &c. all exquisitely painted,
The heads of the Females by Sr. J. Reynolds &
Sir Robt. Strange, to whom this painting on Ivory was shown, thought it sufficiently highly finished to be set in a ring. The painting is in the possession of Dr. Wainey.

100
—
Indian Picture
—

3807389

Done

~~Frees~~

for Autograph Miss Paton
Indian Picture

Italian Tour.

13
1847