

Greenwich. Dec. 1.st - 1800.

My dear Sir,

The Bill against Mrs D'arbley has escaped your memory. — Pray, let it be mad-fully out; and send to me with a receipt; which will be a necessary document for me to produce. —

It gave me much pleasure to hear yesterday,
that our friend Cadell was better.

Yours faithfully,

C. Burney.

1757-1817

Classical Scholar + Schoolmaster

7 O'CLOCK
JAN 1
1800 N.S.

Mr. Davies

Bookeller

Strand

P.S. If you can send me an hundred

Guys' Rattle, for Wednesday Morning,

do; but if the time is too short,

order must stand over; as I cannot

to the , unless they reach me; when at all, a matter of the day; on Wednesday.

order, send me. Dalloway's minutes of the 17th:

Hoyles' Essay on the Whisk: Pledge on the 24th of the 18th. - Pray let this plate be good.