

Althorp,
Northamptonshire.
Jan 7 8. 1825-

My dearest C<sup>s</sup>.

This House is a most idle & delightful lounging place; and it is impossible to work or read or write. Yet I must say I am tolerably well. -

Last week brought me a slight 3 days gout - but it is, I trust, off - Last Spencer also has had a touch - but it will not, he trusts, continue. -

Spent, this morning, & last Sunday, read prayer & sermons. - Diddie read; & read much better, than I thought.

Tomorrow, I expect, to hear from you; and trust not to be disappointed -

Wolgreen, the - Mr Elliot, the your friend Blk of St John's Diddie born our Party - & very pleasant it is -

My love to Fanny & the Babs -
Pl see your mother, when you can -
Always your affly
Beverly.
