GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.—The general collection consists of a series of the characteristic Fossils of all the great geological periods, with additional suites of specimens, illustrating in greater detail the formations represented in Canada. There is also an extensive collection of Rock specimens, and collections are being formed representing the principal Mineral Regions of Canada.

The Mineralogical Cabinet consists principally of the "Holmes Collection," containing about 2,000 specimens of Canadian and Foreign Minerals. A large portion of these are displayed in glass cases for the use of students, under the arrangement of Dana's Manual of Mineralogy.

All of the above collections are used to illustrate the lectures, or are open to the inspection of students, who are also entitled to access to the large and valuable collections of the Natural History Society of Montreal.

III. PHILOSOPHICAL APPARATUS.

The value of the apparatus is about $4000. Of this more than two thousand dollars' worth has been added within the last year, by means of a personal subscription amongst some of the Governors. The collection is now very valuable for purposes of illustration in the departments of Mathematical and Experimental Physics. Besides instruments to illustrate Mechanics (Statics and Dynamics) and Optical instruments, such as Microscopes, a Telescope, Sextant, &c., there is a good collection for Hydrostatics and Pneumatics, another for Heat, and a very full collection for Magnetism and Electricity (Statical and Dynamical) including Electro-magnetism, Magneto-electricity, Dia-magnetism, Thermo-electricity the measurement of Electric resistance. The collection for Light (which has been ordered from Duboscq of Paris, but has not yet arrived) includes, besides apparatus illustrative of the common phenomena of optics, the best instruments for exhibiting on a large scale with the aid of the electric light the phenomena of Interference, Diffraction, Polarization and Double Refraction. There is a good collection for Sound (made by Koenig). The apparatus for Dynamical Electricity and Heat has been made by Messrs. Elliot Brothers, of London, makers of the apparatus used by the Committee on Electrical Standards British Association for the Advancement of Science.

V. METEOROLOGICAL AND MAGNETIC OBSERVATORY.

The Basement of the Building is devoted entirely to the observations on Terrestrial Magnetism.

The Ground Story and Leads are the portions of the Building devoted to Meteorological observations.

The Transit tower is for the purpose of furnishing time to the City, and to the Ships in the Harbour, and is connected by Electric Telegraph with a "Time Ball" at the wharf.

The principal Meteorological Instruments are :—

Thermometers for determining the Temperature of the Air.

Barometers for ascertaining the atmospheric pressure.

Psychrometers for the purpose of determining the Elastic force of Aqueous Vapour, the relative Humidity and Dew Point. Instruments for recording the Solar and Terrestrial Radiation.

The direction and velocity of the wind are registered by a modification of Dr. Robinson's Anemometer.

Rain and Snow Gauges for indicating the amount and duration of Rain and Snow. Ozoneometer for recording the amount of Ozone.

Transit Instrument.

Observations on Storms, Auroras, Haloes and most of the Natural Phenomena which mark the variation of Climate are duly recorded.

The Instruments in the Basement of the Building are for determining the four Magnetic Elements; and consist of, (1) a Declinometer for measuring the Declination or Variation of the Magnet; (2) an Unifilar Magnetometer consisting of an apparatus for deflection and vibration, for ascertaining the horizontal Magnetic force; (3) an Inclinometer or Dip-Needle (No. 30 used in the Magnetic Survey in Great Britain) for showing the Inclination or Dip. From these observations are reduced the absolute value of the Magnetic Elements.

The whole are under the supervision of Professor Smallwood, M. D., LL.D., D. C. L.

Matriculation Examiner of the Faculty,—Professor H. ASPINWALL HOWE, M.A.

The thirty-sixth Session of the Medical Faculty of the McGill University will be opened on Monday, 2nd November, 1868; with a general introductory Lecture at 11 A.M.; the regular Lectures will commence on Wednesday the 4th Nov. at the hours specified in the time table, and be continued during the six months following.

McGill University having been included among the Universities recognized by the Medical Council of Great Britain and Ireland, its degree has accordingly been registered by that Council, thereby conferring upon graduates of this University the same privileges as Physicians or Surgeons of Great Britain.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the Universities and Colleges of Great Britain and Ireland, and also before the Medical Boards of the Army and Navy.

To meet the circumstances of General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master in Surgery." This designation is also appropriate, from agreeing with the general nature and equable character of the previous curriculum demanded of the candidates for this double rank, as is fully specified hereafter. The degree is received by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Lower Canada, and by the Council of Medical education and Registration of Upper Canada.

To intending students desirous of information upon the best manner of pursuing their studies, the following suggestions are made by the Faculty.---

(1.) Exclusively of general education, professional reading for some time previously to matriculation is advised as a preparation, whereby familiarity with technical terms will be gained, and an insight obtained into the subjects to be brought under notice during lectures.

(2.) Though three years constitute the shortest time required for College attendance, yet the student is at liberty to extend this as much farther as he pleases; the addition of a year, or even two, is considered to be a great benefit, for it obviates the crowding of branches within too brief a term, and permits of a more extensive attainment of the topics they embrace.

(3.) Attention is recommended to be given during the first Session to the primary branches entirely; during the second Session an increase is proper, and two of the final courses may be profitably conjoined with such of the antecedent as are required; while during the remaining period further advance is to be made by completing the curriculum required of the candidate for graduation. Clinical courses should not be taken out during the first Session.

Matriculation is necessary every Session; it is required upon entrance or as nearly afterwards as possible, and always before any class tickets are procured. The time fixed for closing the Register is annually in the month of December. Class tickets are payable in advance, and if not taken out within the prescribed period of the current session, will not be granted after its expiration.

The ample and varied means which are placed at the disposal of the student by this school, together with the large hospitals in connection with it, are briefly referred to in the following pages.

COURSES OF LECTURES.

The number of Professors in the Faculty is nine; the number of Classes, ten; two of the classes (often conjoined in European Schools) being held by one Professor.

1. ANATOMY.—[Prof. Scott]—The fresh subject is chiefly employed in the illustrations of the Lectures in this branch, aided however, by dried preparations, wax models, plates, full size of life, &c.

The dissecting Room is under the direction of the Professor, aided by the Demonstrator of Anatomy. It is open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., being lighted with gas.

2. CHEMISTRY.—[Prof. Craik]—Inorganic Chemistry is fully treated; and a large portion of the course is devoted to Organic Chemistry and its relation to Physiology. The branches of Physics bearing upon or connected with Chemistry, also engage the attention of the class. For experimental illustration, abundant apparatus is possessed by the Professor, among which may be enumerated, a powerful Air Pump—Oxy-Hydrogen Microscope—Polariscope—extensive series of Crystal models—Electrical and Galvanic apparatus, &c., &c.

3. MATERIA MEDICA.—[Prof. Wright]—This Course is illustrated from a cabinet of Pharmacological objects; by plates of Medicinal Plants, [Wagner, Roque, Stevenson and Churchill]—by dried specimens; by carefully prepared Microscopical objects, &c., &c. Analytical experiments with the ordinary re-agents are also shown; and diagrams with other illustrations, are used.

4. INSTITUTES OF MEDICINE.—[Prof. Fraser]—Under which are comprised Histology, General Pathology, and General Therapeutics. The minute Structure and Composition of the various Organs, and the Fluids and Tissues of the body in health and disease are explained and illustrated by Microscopic Preparations, Plates and Preparations from the Museum.

5. PRACTICE OF MEDICINE.—[Prof. Howard]—The extensive series of plates contained in the Library, (Libert, Cruveilhier, Carswell, Hope, Alibert, Willan, Bateman, &c., &c.) will be employed; also Morbid Preparations and models of diseased parts.

6. SURGERY.—[Prof. Campbell]—Divided into Principles and Practice, including Surgical Anatomy and Operative Surgery, exhibited on the subject. Quain's large plates, Maclise, Dalrymple &c. The various surgical instruments and apparatus exhibited, and their uses and applications explained and practically illustrated.

7. MIDWIFERY.—[Prof. McCallum]—Including diseases of females and infants, illustrated by a series of drawings on a large scale; by humid Preparations; by models in wax; and by the use of the artificial Pelvis.

8. MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE.—[Prof. Fenwick]—Includes Toxicology—the modes of testing for poisons are exhibited, and post-mortem appearances illustrated by plates—Insanity, Public Hygiene, and Medical Police are touched upon.

9. CLINICAL MEDICINE.—[Prof. Drake]—Taught by lectures and at the bed side—Physical Diagnosis taught practically, and each pupil invited to take part in it. Examinations of the urine, chemically and microscopically explained and illustrated.

10. CLINICAL SURGERY.—[Prof. Fenwick]—Taught in similar manner. For both these Classes ample material is afforded by the cases at the Montreal General Hospital.

11. BOTANY AND ZOOLOGY.—[Prof. Dawson]—In addition to the above classes, Students are required to attend one course of Botany on which subject separate Lectures are delivered to Medical Students. Medical Students will also have access to the Lectures in Zoology in the Faculty of Arts. For details see announcement of the Faculty of Arts.

Prizes will be awarded at the end of each Session, to students in Botany and Zoology, of the class of the previous Session, for the best Named Collections illustrative of the Flora of Canada or of Fossil Invertebrata, Insects or Marine Invertebrata. The collections, or duplicates of them, to remain in the College Museum.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM.

The Library contains upwards of 4,000 volumes, including the most useful books for reference, as well as the most elementary ones: the works of the older authors as well as the most recent. It is open to the Students without charge, under necessary regulations for the care of the books. The Museum contains a large number of preparations, chiefly Pathological; also, wax and papier maché models.

HOSPITALS.

The Montreal General Hospital is visited every day by the Medical officers in attendance. After the visit, a large number of out-door patients are examined and prescribed for. The fee for a six month's ticket is Six Dollars; for perpetual, Sixteen Dollars.

The Operating Room (used also for a lecture room) is so constructed as to suit the convenience of the students in obtaining a good view of the operations going on.

The University Lying-in-Hospital is under the direction of the Professor of Midwifery. Students who have already attended one course of his lectures, are furnished with cases in rotation. The Fee for a Six month's ticket is Five Dollars.

Faculty of Law.

The Principal, (ex officio.)

Professors---BADGLEY,
ABBOTT.
TORRANCE.
LAFRENAYE.
LAFLAMME.
CARTER.

Dean of the Faculty,---HON. J. J. C. ABBOTT, Q.C., D.C.L.

The several courses of Lectures in the Faculty of Law comprise every branch of Legal Study.

The Educational Officers of the Faculty have felt that the Law of this Province, though in many of its details purely local, retains as its leading characteristics, the noble and imposing features of the civil law, and that the principles established in the Roman jurisprudence, still form the groundwork of many of its departments. The Lectures, therefore, though prepared with especial reference to the Law of Quebec, have been as far as consistent with their primary object, divested of any purely sectional character, and are made to inculcate such comprehensive principles, as form, to a great extent, the basis of every system of jurisprudence.

It is considered that this system will afford to students of the Laws of Quebec, a better foundation for their subsequent studies, and tend to give them a more extended and comprehensive grasp of legal subjects, than a course of instruction conducted solely with reference to local law ; while it is hoped, in view of the increased importance which the study of Roman law is everywhere assuming, that the advantages offered, and the mode of education adopted by this Faculty, will open to it an extensive field of usefulness.

The promulgation of the Civil Code of Lower Canada as law, to take effect from the 1st August, 1866, marks an important epoch in the History of the Laws of the now Province of Quebec.*

It is the intention of the Professors, so far as is practicable, to explain to the Students, the more important articles of this Code (2615 in number) in the complete course of study as indicated below.

The promulgation of the Code of Civil Procedure, as law to have force from the 28th June, 1867, marks another important epoch in the history of our laws. Attention will be specially drawn to its provisions in this course.

The enactments of these Codes as law, it is believed, will lighten much the labours of professors and students, who need no longer view the study of the profession as a vast and ill-digested whole, wanting coherency and certainty. On the contrary, the study of the texts will afford a good stand-point from which the subtile questions of jurisprudence will be the most easily and satisfactorily discussed and finally settled.

The Faculty congratulate the students that their entry into a noble but arduous profession will be much facilitated by the conspicuous land-marks planted by the new Codes, and while intense study and application will still be demanded from the true lover of his vocation, the future of the young juriconsult of the Province of Quebec, may be regarded as opening under the happiest auspices.

The complete course of study in this Faculty extends over three years; but may be shortened to two years, when the student matriculates in the third year of his indentures.

This School offers the higher kind of instruction and the mental training which together constitute the foundation of what is called a Liberal Education. As a Department of the University, it offers a thorough preparation for the College Course.

The Course of Instruction includes the Latin, Greek, English, French and German Languages; Geography and History; Arithme- tic, Algebra, Plane Geometry, Plane Trigonometry with the use of Logarithms, Mensuration, and the Elements of Natural Philosophy; Writing and Book-keeping; Drilling and Gymnastics. A Volunteer Rifle Association under Military Drill has been formed of the elder Boys and is recognised by the Military Authorities. The Religious Instruction is not sectarian, and attendance upon it is required only from Pupils who are Protestants. Details of the above Course are subjoined in a Programme for the year. An examination of it will shew that, whilst the Latin and Greek Languages have that prominence which necessarily belongs to them in Higher Education, provision is made to impart at the same time a thorough English and Commercial Education, and that French, as being one of the colloquial languages of the country, is much cultivated.

The complete course extends over a period of six or seven years; but Pupils are admitted for any portion of that time into any Form for which, upon examination, they are found qualified.

The Session, which is divided into four equal Terms, commences on the 1st of September, and with the exception of a fortnight at Christmas and a few days at Easter, continues to the 1st of July.

The full School hours are from 9 to 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock, a. m., and to 4 p. m., every day in the week except Saturday, but the time for the Preparatory and the First Forms is shorter by an hour each day.

The School is divided into seven Forms. The Preparatory Form is a Lower School, in which young boys receive the training necessary to fit them for the commencement of the regular Curriculum.

For admission into this Form, it is required that the Pupil shall have attained the age of seven years, and be able to read moderately well. Regular early training is of so great importance that the entrance of a pupil should not be delayed beyond the age of nine. The best time for entrance is at the commencement of the Session, when owing to the promotions that take place, the classes are remodelled for the year.

The pupils of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Forms next above the Preparatory are not allowed any option in their studies, but must take the whole course of instruction prescribed for them. The Pupils of the Fifth and Sixth Forms are divided into two "Sides." The "Classical Side" is intended for those boys who desire a more extended and accurate knowledge of the ancient Languages. The "Commercial Side" is adapted for those who are to enter upon mercantile pursuits. When a pupil has reached the Fifth Form his Parent or Guardian may select either of these sides for him; but the choice having been made, the Pupil must pursue all the course of instruction appointed for the side to which he belongs.

Special Reports are sent, whenever it seems necessary, to the Parent or Guardian of any pupil who has been absent, negligent of any study, or incorrect in his conduct. A Quarterly Report is made of the progress, attendance, and conduct of every Pupil, shewing his rank in his Form for each study.

At the end of each term, Class Examinations are held, both Written and Oral, and at the close of the Session, a public Examination takes place, followed by a Distribution of Prizes and Award of Honours, the lists being published. The Highest Honour is the Davidson Gold Medal, which is awarded to the Head Boy of the School for the year, provided that the Examiners are satisfied that his attainments reach a certain standard.

A special Examination is annually held of Candidates for the School Certificate issued by the University. The Conditions regarding this may be seen by reference to the Calendar of the University.

The Pupils are required to prepare themselves every evening in their work for the ensuing day, as exhibited in a Time-table. As their progress will depend very much upon the diligent performance of this duty, Parents are particularly requested to allow no arrangements to interfere with it. Parents having sons at the School are earnestly invited to frequent intercourse with the Masters, so as to aid them in securing that regularity and industry so necessary to success in Education. The classes are visited periodically by a committee of the Board.

The School Building is in a healthy and airy situation, and has convenient interior arrangements, with those modern improvements which secure proper warmth and ventilation. A very good Gymnasium has been erected in the play-ground adjoining the School.

The Rector, who resides a short distance from the City, has made arrangements to receive a limited number of Pupils of the High School to board with him. Mr. Rodger and Prof. Darey, Masters of the School, have also accommodation for Boarders.

M^CGILL
NORMAL SCHOOL,
MONTREAL.

1868-9.

(This School is affiliated to the McGill University, under the control of the Superintendent of Education and the Corporation of the University.)

J. W. DAWSON, LL.D., F.R.S., &c., Principal, and Associate Professor of Natural History and Agriculture.

WILLIAM HENRY HICKS, ESQ.,—Ordinary Professor of English Language and Literature.

MR. JOHN ANDREW, — “ in Elocution.

This Institution is intended to give a thorough training to teachers, especially for the Protestant population of Lower Canada. This end is attained by instruction and training in the Normal School itself, and by practice in the Model Schools; and the arrangements, are of such a character as to afford the greatest possible facilities to Students from all parts of the Province.

The McGill Normal School has now been in operation for eleven years, and more than two hundred of those who have taken its Diplomas are usefully employed in various parts of Canada, while the demand for teachers trained in the School continues to increase, as Commissioners and Trustees become more fully aware of the difference between trained and untrained Teachers. More especially, those who have taken the Model School and Academy Diplomas are much sought after, and the demand for male teachers trained in the School is much greater than can be supplied. The attention of young men is invited to these facts, as well as to the advantages which the School offers in opening the way to higher literary and professional education.

The authorities of the School feel that its usefulness might be increased, could the great facilities and ample means of training which it affords, be more generally made known to young persons desirous of becoming teachers, and to their parents and guardians. It is most desirable that those who purpose to devote themselves to the important profession of teaching should be as perfectly trained as possible; and that to this end they should avail themselves of the advantages so liberally provided by Government in the Provincial Normal School.

The Twelfth session of the school will commence on the second of September, 1868, and will extend to the first of July, 1869.

The complete course of Study extends over three years, and the Students are graded as follows:—

1. Elementary School Class.—Studying for the Elementary School Diploma.
2. Model School Class.—Studying for the Model School Diploma.
3. Academy Class.—Studying for the Academy Diploma.

1. Conditions of Admission.

Candidates for admission into the Junior Class will be required to pass an examination in Reading, Writing, the Elements of Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography. Admission into each of the higher classes requires a knowledge of the subjects of the previous one.

All Students must produce certificates of good moral character from the clergyman or minister of religion under whose charge they have last been, and also testimony that they have attained the age of sixteen years. They will also be required to sign a pledge that they purpose to teach for three years in some public school in Lower Canada.

2. Privileges of Students.

On complying with the above conditions, all students will be recognized as Teachers in Training; and as such will be entitled to free tuition with the use of text books, and to bursaries in aid of their board, not exceeding $36.00 per annum in the case of those in the two first Classes, or $80.00 in the case of those in the Academy Class, should they be successful in obtaining the diploma at the final examination. A portion of this allowance will be advanced to such students as are not resident in Montreal, on their passing the semi-annual examination at Christmas.

Under the regulations subjoined, and with the view of extending the benefits of the school to all parts of the country, those who reside at a distance of more than ninety miles from the city of Montreal, will also be entitled to a small allowance for travelling expenses proportionate to the distance.

Students resident in Montreal may share in the bursary fund, on producing certificates from their minister or clergyman that such aid is absolutely necessary to their continuing in attendance at the school.

In addition to religious instruction of a general Protestant character by the Professors, arrangements will be made for special religious instruction by ministers representing the several denominations with which the students may be connected.

No boarding-house is attached to the institution, but every care will be taken to insure the comfort and good conduct of the students, in private boarding-houses approved by the Principal. Board can be obtained at from $9 to $12 per month.

At the close of the first year of study, students may apply for examination for diplomas giving the right to teach in Elementary Schools; and after two years' study, or if found qualified at the close of the first year, they will, on examination, be entitled to diplomas as teachers of Model Schools.

Students having passed the examination in the Model School Class, or having advanced to the requisite knowledge, may go on to the Academy Class, and, on examination, may obtain the Academy Diploma.

The Prince of Wales Medal and Prize will be given to the Student taking the highest place in the Model School Class, provided that such Student shall attain to the standard fixed by the Regulations of the Council of Public Instruction for this Medal.

All the preceding regulations and privileges apply to female as well as to male students.

Persons holding the degree of B.A. or M.A. of any University in the Province of Quebec, may receive the Academy Diploma, on passing an examination in the art of teaching, and in such other subjects, necessary to the Academy Diploma, as may not have been included in their University examinations.

3. Course of Study.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REGULATIONS.

Special Regulations for admission of Pupil-teachers.

Article First—Any person desirous of being admitted as a pupil-teacher must apply to the Principal of the Normal School, who, on his producing an extract from the Register of Baptisms, or other evidence, showing that he is fully sixteen years of age, with the certificate of character and conduct required by the 16th article of the general Rules and Regulations, approved by His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the 22nd December, 1856, shall examine the candidate.

If upon his examination it is found that the candidate can read and write sufficiently well, knows the rudiments of Grammar in his mother tongue, Arithmetic as far as the rule of three inclusively, and has some knowledge of Geography, the Principal shall grant him a certificate.

Article Second.—The candidate having thus obtained the certificate of the Principal, shall then, (in the presence of two witnesses, who, with the Principal, shall countersign the same,) sign an application in writing for admission, containing the declaration required by the 23rd general regulation. This shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of Schools, together with all the certificates and other documents required, and if the whole be found correct, the Superintendent shall cause the name of the candidate to be inscribed in the Register, and notice thereof shall be given to the Principal.

Article Third.—The pupil-teachers shall state the place of their residence; and those who cannot reside with their parents, will be permitted to live in boarding-houses, but in such only as shall be specially approved of. No boarding-houses having permission to board male pupil-teachers, will be permitted to receive female pupil-teachers as boarders, and vice versa.

Article Fourth.—Every pupil-teacher on passing the examinations will be allowed a sum not exceeding £9, to assist in paying his board.*

Article Fifth.—Every pupil residing at a distance of more than ninety miles from the city of Montreal, shall be entitled to receive an allowance for travelling expenses, proportionate to the distance, but not to exceed two pounds ten shillings per annum.

Article Sixth.—The total amount of allowances paid to pupil-teachers under the foregoing articles shall not exceed £333 6s. 8d. currency, yearly—that being the sum granted for this object; and when the whole of this amount is appropriated, such pupil-teachers as may apply for admission shall not be entitled to any portion thereof, until vacancies shall occur.

* Except in the case of Teachers in training for the Academy Diploma, who may receive a sum not exceeding £20.

Article Fifth.—Proprietors of boarding houses authorized by the Principal shall report to him any infraction of the rules, with which they may become acquainted.

Article Sixth.—The Professors shall have the power of excluding from the lectures for a time, any student who may be inattentive to his studies or guilty of any minor infraction of the regulations.

LABORATORY REPORT

McGILL COLLEGE MONTREAL

EXPERIMENT FOR THE DETERMINATION OF THE

COEFFICIENT OF FRICTION

BY

STUDENT'S NAME

THEORY

When a body is placed on a horizontal surface and a force is applied to it, it will remain at rest until the force is sufficient to overcome the friction between the body and the surface. The friction force is proportional to the normal force, which is the weight of the body in this case.

The coefficient of friction, μ , is defined as the ratio of the friction force to the normal force.

$$\mu = \frac{F_f}{F_n}$$

PROCEDURE

1. A block of wood was placed on a horizontal surface.

2. A force was applied to the block by a string attached to a spring scale.

3. The force was increased until the block just began to move.

4. The force was then held constant and the block was allowed to move at a constant velocity.

5. The force was measured in both cases.

6. The coefficient of friction was calculated from the ratio of the two forces.

LATIN PROSE COMPOSITION.

ExaminerREV. PROFESSOR CORNISH, M.A.

Translate into Latin:—

There had been peace between the Romans and the Æquians: but the Æquians and Gracchus Clœlius, their chief, broke the peace, and plundered the lands of the people of Lavici, and of the people of Tusculum. They then pitched their camp on the top of Algidus; and the Romans sent deputies to them to complain of the wrong which they had done. It happened that the tent of Gracchus was pitched under the shade of a great evergreen oak, and he was sitting in his tent when the deputies came to him. His answer was full of mockery: "I, for my part," said he, "am busy with other matters; I cannot hear you; you had better tell your message to the oak yonder." Immediately one of the deputies answered, "Yea, let this sacred oak hear, and let all the gods hear likewise, how treacherously you have broken the peace! They shall hear it now, and shall soon avenge it; for you have scorned alike the laws of the gods and of men." Then they went back to Rome, and the senate resolved upon war; and L. Minucius, the consul, led his legions towards Algidus, to fight with the proud enemy.

Turba feminarum reginas comitantium equis vectabatur. Quindecim deinde, quas armamaxas appellabant sequebantur. In his erant liberi regis et qui educabant eos spadonumque grex, haud sane illis gentibus vilis. Tum regiae pellices trecentae et sexaginta vehebantur, et ipsae regali cultu ornatuque. Post quas pecuniam regis sexcenti muli et trecenti cameli vehebant, praesidio sagittariorum prosequente. Ille epistola perlecta, plus indignationis quam pavoris ostendit: proiectisque amiculo et litteris ante lectum, Rex, inquit, semper quidem spiritus meus ex te pependit, sed nunc vere, arbitror, sacro et venerabili ore trahitur. Servatus a me vitam mihi dederis: oro quaesoque, omisso metu, patere medicamentum concipi venis: laxa paulisper animum, quem intempestiva sollicitudine amici sane fideles, sed moleste seduli turbant. Non securum modo haec vox, sed etiam laetum regem ac plenum bonae spei fecit. Itaque, Si dii, inquit, *Philippe, tibi permisissent, quo modo maxime velles animum experiri meum, alio profecto voluisses, sed certiore quam expertus es, ne optasses quidem. When Pyrrhus, King of Epirus, had, without provocation, engaged in war against the Roman people, a deserter from him came into the camp of Fabricius, the Roman general, and promised that, if he would offer him a reward, he would return to the camp of Pyrrhus, and would put him to death by poisoning. III. Traduisez en anglais :

ARMANDE. Oui, rien n'a retenu son esprit en balance ; (a)
Elle a fait vanité (b) de son obéissance.
Son cœur, pour se livrer (c), à peine devant moi

Et semblait suivre moins les volontés d'un père.
Qu'affecter de braver les ordres d'une mère.

PHILAMINTE. Je lui montrerai bien aux lois de qui des deux
Les lois de la raison soumettent tous ses vœux ;
Et qui doit gouverner, ou son père, ou sa mère,
Ou l'esprit ou le corps, la forme ou la matière.

Et ce petit monsieur (e) en use étrangement
De vouloir malgré vous devenir votre gendre.

Oubliez une gloire importune ;
Ce triste abaissement convient à ma fortune ;
Heureuse si mes pleurs vous peuvent attendrir !
Une mère à vos pieds peut tomber sans rougir.
C'est votre épouse, hélas ! qui vous est enlevée.
Dans cet heureux espoir je l'avais élevée.
C'est vous que nous cherchions sur ce funeste bord ;
Et votre nom, seigneur, la conduit à la mort.
Ira-t-elle des dieux implorant la justice,
Embrasser leurs autels parés pour son supplice ?
Elle n'a que vous seul : vous êtes en ces lieux ;
Son père, son époux, son asile, ses dieux.

VIII. Traduisez en français :

The history of the Latin language is the history of Rome. As the empire was founded, made permanent and extended from province to province, so the language it spoke also arose, grew and spread abroad, and as the great principle, the very soul, of ancient Rome long survived its fall and bequeathed to the new kingdoms rising upon its ruins the spirit of Roman Law and Roman Government, together with that Church which it had raised and fostered in early infancy, so the Latin language, also, has risen again in the Romanic idioms—au eloquent evidence of the spiritual continuance of Rome after its political destruction !

1. Translate into English:—

(a) Idem cum salutandi gratia praetextatus ad Syllam venisset et capita proscriptorum in atrium allata vidisset, atrocitate rei commotus paedagogum suum Sarpedonem nomine interrogavit, quapropter nemo inveniretur, qui tam crudelem tyrannum occideret: cumque is, non voluntatem hominibus, sed facultatem deesse, quod salus eius magno militum praesidio custodiretur, respondisset: ut ferrum sibi daretur, obsecravit, affirmando perfacile se eum interfectorum, quod in lecto illius considerare soleret. Paedagogus et animum Catonis agnovit, et propositum exhorruit, eumque postea ad Syllam excussum semper adduxit. Nihil hoc admirabilius. Puer, in officina crudelitatis deprehensus, victorem non extimuit, tum maxime consules, municipia, legiones, equestris ordinis maiorem partem trucidantem. Ipsum Marium si quis eo loci statuisset, celerius aliquid de fuga sua, quam de Syllae nece, cogitasset.

Cuius filium Faustum C. Cassius, condiscipulum suum, in schola proscriptionem paternam laudantem, ipsumque, cum per aetatem potuisset, idem facturum minitantem, colapho percussit. Dignam manum, quae publico parricidio se non contaminaret,

(b) Cui facta par illa fiducia, quod postquam Africam attigit, speculatores Annibalis in castris deprehensos et ad se perductos nec supplicio affecit, nec de consiliis ac viribus Poenorum percunctatus est, sed circa omnes manipulos diligentissime deducendos curavit: interrogatosque, an satis ea considerassent, quae speculandi iussu erant, prandio dato ipsis iumentisque eorum, incolumes dimisit. Quo tam pleno fiduciae spiritu prius animos hostium, quam arma contudit. Verum ut ad domestica eximiae eius fiduciae acta veniamus: cum a L. Scipione ex Antiochensi pecunia H-S. quadragies ratio in curia reposceretur, prolatum ab eo librum, quo acceptae et expensae summae continebantur et refelli inimicorum accusatio poterat, discerpsit: indignatus, de ea re dubitari, quae sub ipso legato administrata fuerat. Quin etiam in hunc modum egit: Non reddo, patres conscripti, aerario vestro H-S. quadragies rationem, alieni imperii minister, quod meo ductu meisque auspiciis bis milles H-S. uberius feci. Neque enim huc puto malignitatis ventum, ut de mea innocentia quaerendum sit. Nam cum Africam totum potestati vestrae subicerem, nihil ex ea quod meum diceretur, praeferer cognomen, retuli. Non igitur me Punicae, non fratrem meum Asiaticae gazae anarum reddiderunt: sed uterque nostrum magis invidia, quam pecunia, locupletior est. Tam constantem defensionem Scipionis universus senatus comprobavit.

(c) Quid feminae cum concione? si patrius mos servetur, nihil: sed ubi domestica quietes seditionum agitata fluctibus est priscae consuetudinis auctoritas convellitur: plusque valet, quod violentia cogit, quam quod suadet et praecipit verecundia. Itaque te, Sempronia, Ti. et C. Gracchorum soror, uxor Scipionis Aemiliani, non ut absurde gravissimis viro- rum operibus inserens, maligna relatione comprehendam; sed quia, a tribuno plebis producta ad populum, in maxima confusione nihil a tuorum amplitudine degenerasti, honorata memoria prosequar. Coacta es eo loci consistere, ubi principum civitatis perturbari frons solebat: instabat tibi torvo vultu minas profundens amplissima potestas; clamor imperitae multitudinis obstrebat, totum forum acerrimo studio nitebatur, ut Equitio, cui Semproniae gentis falsum ius quaerebatur, tanquam filio Tiberii fratris tui, osculum dares: tu tamen illum, nescio quibus tenebris protractum portentum, execrabili audacia ad usurpandum alienam proquinquitatem tendentem, repulisti.

2. Write short explanatory notes on the following:—Statua bullata et incincta praetexta. Paedagogus. Pons sublicius. Opima spolia Jovi Feretrio retulit. Eculeo impositi. Pallio et crepidis usus est. Vadimoniam facere. Jus dicere. Ferros murices. Sine ullis imaginibus.

3. (a) Explain the origin and meaning of the sign HS, and give the full expression, in Latin, for the sums mentioned in ext. (b). (b) Give the value, and state the difference between Sestertius and Sestertium. Explain grammatically the latter form.

4. Construe the following extracts:—(a) Apertum et animosum bonae fiduciae pectus emenso, quasi debitum superest, opus constantiae repraesentare; natura enim sic comparatum est, ut, quisquis se aliquid ordine ac recte mente complexum confidit vel iam gestum si obtrectetur, acriter tueatur, vel nondum editum si interpelletur, sine ulla cunctatione ad effectum perducat. (b) Quae, oppositu eius legitima grassari via prohibita, iniusto praetorum cruore manus suas contaminare perseveravit: nec timuit Socrates, ne consternatae patriae undecimus furor mors ipsius existeret.

5. Parse the following verbs:—direxissent, absciso, effudit, inustum, sternendarum, cupitam, possedit, excussit, illisum, potiti essent, inse-ruisset.

7. (a) Decline the following:—frons (frondis), vis, vulgus, fulgur, ös, ös. (b) Give the Genitives and Datives, sing. and plu., of merces, filia, domus, plus, uterque. (c) Write down the Comp. and Superlat. of:—vetus, felix, saepe, diu, nuper. (d) Give the Perf. and Sup. of:—metior, mentior, paciscor, fido, findo.

8. (a) Illustrate by examples the uses of quin, quominus, and ne. (b) After what kind of adverbs, used substantively, is the Partitive Genitive used? Give instances. 1. Tarquinius gained his power wickedly, and no less wickedly did he exercise it. He kept a guard of armed men about him, and he ruled all things at his own will: many were they whom he spoiled of their goods, many were they whom he banished, and many also whom he slew. He despised the senate, and made no new senators in the place of those whom he slew, or who died in the course of nature, wishing that the senators might become fewer and fewer, till there should be none of them left. And he made friends of the chief men among the Latins, and gave his daughter in marriage to Mamilius of Tusculum; and he became very powerful amongst the Latins, insomuch that when Turnus Herdonius of Aricia had dared to speak against him in the great assembly of the Latins, Tarquinius accused him of plotting his death, and procured false witnesses to confirm his charge; so that the Latins judged him to be guilty, and ordered him to be drowned.

2. At that time there came a strange woman to the King, and offered him nine books of the prophecies of the Sybil for a certain price. When the king refused them, the woman burnt three of the books, and then offered the six at the same price; but they mocked her, and would not take the books. Then she went away and burnt three more, and came back and asked still the same price for the remaining three. At this the king was astonished, and asked of the augurs what he should do. They bade him by all means to buy the books that were left. So he bought them; and the woman was seen no more from that day forward.

THIRD YEAR.

Translate into Latin:—

Hannibal was twenty-six years of age when he was appointed commander-in-chief of the Carthaginian armies in Spain, upon the sudden death of Hasdrubal. Two years, we have seen, had been employed in expeditions against the native Spaniards; the third year was devoted to the siege of Saguntum. Hannibal's pretext for attacking it was, that the Saguntines had oppressed one of the Spanish tribes in alliance with Carthage; but no caution in the Saguntine government could have avoided a quarrel, which their enemy was determined to provoke. Saguntum, although not a city of native Spaniards, resisted as obstinately as if the very air of Spain had breathed into foreign settlers on its soil the spirit so often, in many different ages, displayed by the Spanish people. Saguntum was defended like Numantia and Gerona: the siege lasted eight months; and when all hope was gone, several of the chiefs kindled a fire in the market-place, and after having thrown in their most precious effects, leapt into it themselves, and perished. Still the spoil found in the place was very considerable: there was a large treasure of money, which Hannibal kept for his war expenses; there were numerous captives, whom he distributed amongst his soldiers as their share of the plunder; and there was much costly furniture from the public and private buildings, which he sent home to decorate the temples and palaces of Carthage.

LATIN PROSE COMPOSITION.

Examiner.....REV. GEORGE CORNISH, M.A.

Translate into Latin :—

1. Our soldiers, under the command of Scipio, have subdued two countries, of a soil more fertile than ours and become, by a series of battles and by intestine discord, less populous; let them divide and enjoy it. The beaten should always pay the expenses of the war, and the instigators should be deprived of their possessions and their lives. Which, I pray you, is the more reasonable; that the Roman people shall incur debts by having conquered, or that the weight of those debts shall fall totally on the vanquished? Either the war was unjust against them, or the conditions of peace against us. Our citizens are fined and imprisoned (since their debts begin with fine and end with imprisonment) for having hurt them. What! shall we strike and run away? or shall our soldier, when he hath stripped the armour from his adversary, say, No, I will not take this; I will go to Rome, and suit myself with better!

2. The peace of Constance presented a noble opportunity of establishing a permanent union. But, dark, long-cherished hatred, and that implacable vindictiveness which, at least in former ages, distinguished the private manners of Italy, deformed her natural character, which can only be the aggregate of individual passions. For revenge she threw away the pearl of great price, and sacrificed even the recollection of that liberty which had stalked like a majestic spirit among the ruins of Milan. The victim by turns of selfish and sanguinary factions of petty tyrants, and of foreign invaders, Italy has fallen like a star from its place in heaven; she has seen her harvests trodden down by the horses of the stranger, and the blood of her children wasted in quarrels not their own. Conquering or conquered, still alike a slave; a long retribution for the tyranny of Rome.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

FROM 1776 TO 1876

BY

W. D. HOWLAND

NEW YORK: THE CENTURY CO., 1876

The history of the United States is a story of progress and struggle. It is a story of the growth of a great nation from a small colony of settlers on the eastern coast of North America. The story begins with the first European settlers in 1607, and continues through the years of colonial struggle, the American Revolution, the formation of the Constitution, the westward expansion, the Civil War, and the Reconstruction. It is a story of the triumph of democracy and the establishment of a new world power.

1. The first part of the problem is to find the velocity of the particle at the end of the path. The particle starts from rest at the origin and moves in the positive x-direction. The force acting on the particle is given by $F = kx$, where k is a constant. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx dx = \frac{1}{2}kL^2$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{2}kL^2 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/m}$.

2. The second part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L . The acceleration of the particle is $a = F/m = kx/m$. Since the particle starts from rest, we can use the equation $v = at$ to find the time t taken for the particle to reach velocity v . Substituting $v = L\sqrt{k/m}$ and $a = kx/m$, we get $L\sqrt{k/m} = (kx/m)t$. Solving for t , we get $t = L\sqrt{m/k}$.

3. The third part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^2$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^2 dx = \frac{1}{3}kL^3$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{3}kL^3 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/3m}$.

4. The fourth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^3$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^3 dx = \frac{1}{4}kL^4$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{4}kL^4 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/2m}$.

5. The fifth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^4$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^4 dx = \frac{1}{5}kL^5$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{5}kL^5 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/5m}$.

6. The sixth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^5$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^5 dx = \frac{1}{6}kL^6$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{6}kL^6 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/3m}$.

7. The seventh part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^6$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^6 dx = \frac{1}{7}kL^7$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{7}kL^7 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/7m}$.

8. The eighth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^7$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^7 dx = \frac{1}{8}kL^8$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{8}kL^8 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/4m}$.

9. The ninth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^8$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^8 dx = \frac{1}{9}kL^9$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{9}kL^9 = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/9m}$.

10. The tenth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^9$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^9 dx = \frac{1}{10}kL^{10}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{10}kL^{10} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/5m}$.

11. The eleventh part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^{10}$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^{10} dx = \frac{1}{11}kL^{11}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{11}kL^{11} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/11m}$.

12. The twelfth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^{11}$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^{11} dx = \frac{1}{12}kL^{12}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{12}kL^{12} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/6m}$.

13. The thirteenth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^{12}$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^{12} dx = \frac{1}{13}kL^{13}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{13}kL^{13} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/13m}$.

14. The fourteenth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^{13}$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^{13} dx = \frac{1}{14}kL^{14}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{14}kL^{14} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{k/7m}$.

15. The fifteenth part of the problem is to find the time taken for the particle to travel the distance L if the force is $F = kx^{14}$. The work done by the force as the particle moves from $x=0$ to $x=L$ is $W = \int_0^L kx^{14} dx = \frac{1}{15}kL^{15}$. This work is equal to the kinetic energy of the particle at $x=L$, so $\frac{1}{15}kL^{15} = \frac{1}{2}mv^2$. Solving for v , we get $v = L\sqrt{2k/15m}$.

1. Donnez un court résumé de la comédie de Molière, Le Tartufe.
2. Quelle est la moralité de cette pièce ?
3. Traduisez en anglais :

On vous donne du temps ;
Et jusques à demain je ferai surséance
A l'exécution, monsieur, de l'ordonnance.
Je reviendrai seulement passer ici la nuit
Avec dix de mes gens, sans scandale et sans bruit.
Pour la forme il faudra, s'il vous plaît, qu'on m'apporte,
Avant que se coucher, les clefs de votre porte.
J'aurai soin de ne pas troubler votre repos,
Et de ne rien souffrir qui ne soit à propos.
Mais demain, du matin, il vous faut être habile
A vider céans jusqu'au moindre ustensile.
Mes gens vous aideront ; et je les ai pris forts
Pour vous faire service à tout mettre dehors.
On n'en peut pas user mieux que je fais, je pense ;
Et comme je vous traite avec grande indulgence,
Je vous conjure aussi, monsieur, d'en user bien,
Et qu'au dû de ma charge on ne me trouble en rien.

MOLIÈRE, Le Tartufe.

Qui est-ce qui parle dans le morceau ci-dessus ? A qui s'adresse-t-il ?

4. Traduisez en anglais :

Et vous avez eu peur de le désavouer
Du trait qu'à ce pauvre homme il a voulu jouer.
Faut-il que notre honneur se gendarme si fort.

Dénichons de céans. Je n'en puis revenir et tout ceci m'assomme. Je le tiens comme mon propre frère. S'il parle d'accord il le faut écouter.

5. Expliquez la différence entre les deux phrases : la maison dont je sors, et la maison d'où je sors, et dites la distinction à faire dans l'emploi du pronom dont et de l'adverbe où.

6. Expliquez la règle sur l'accord du pronom personnel le qui n'est généralement pas exprimé en anglais, et traduisez comme exemples : "Are you the daughter of this gentleman? Yes I am.—Gentlemen, are you ready? No, we are not." Répondez également aux questions suivantes : "Madame, êtes-vous la mère de cet enfant?—Madame, êtes-vous mère?"

7. Quand place-t-on le pronom personnel employé comme sujet du verbe, après le verbe? Donnez des exemples.

8. WELLINGTON'S OPINION OF NAPOLEON.

I asked him what he really thought of the talents of the Emperor Napoleon as a great general. He said: "I have always considered the presence of Napoleon with an army as equal to an additional force of 40,000 men, from his superior talent, and from the enthusiasm which his name and presence inspired into the troops ; and this was the more disinterested on my part because in all my campaigns I had never been opposed to him. When I was in Paris in 1814, I gave this very opinion in the presence of several Prussian and Austrian generals who had fought against him, and you have no idea of the satisfaction and pleasure it gave them to think that though defeated, they had such odds against them."

Imitaient son silence autour de lui rangés;
Il suivait tout (b) pensif le chemin de Mycènes,
Sa main sur ses chevaux laissait flotter (c) les rênes;
Ses superbes coursiers qu'on voyait autrefois
Pleins d'une ardeur si noble obéir à sa voix,
L'œil (d) morne maintenant et la tête baissée
Semblaient (e) se conformer à sa triste pensée.
Un effroyable cri, sorti du fond des flots,
Des airs en ce moment a troublé le repos;
Et, du sein de la terre une voix formidable
Répond en gémissant à ce cri redoutable,
Jusqu'au fond de nos cœurs notre sang s'est glacé;
Des coursiers attentifs le crin s'est hérissé. RACINE, Phèdre.

6. Translate into French:

As my eldest son was bred a scholar, I determined to send him to town, where his abilities might contribute to our support and his own. The separation of friends and families is, perhaps, one of the most distressing circumstances attendant on penury. The day soon arrived on which we were to disperse for the first time. My son after taking leave of his mother and the rest, who mingled their tears with their kisses, came to ask a blessing from me. This I gave from my heart, and which, added to five guineas, was all the patrimony I had now to bestow. "You are going, my boy," cried I, "to London on foot, in the manner Hooker, your great ancestor, travelled before you. Take from me the same horse that was given him by the good Bishop Jewel, this staff; and take this book too, it will be your comfort on the way. These two lines in it are worth a million: 'I have been young, and now am old, yet never saw I the righteous man forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.' Let this be your consolation as you travel on. Go, my boy, whatever be thy fortune, let me see thee once a year; still keep a good heart, and farewell."

The strangers were silent and looked with astonishment at the weeping woman and at Gerhardt who bade her (to) take courage. The latter then stepped nearer to the strangers again and said to them with the greatest composure: "Gentlemen, you need not look for that man in Berlin; he is standing before you. I am the dismissed preacher Paul Gerhardt; I have been obliged to leave Berlin, and am now, in firm trust to God, looking out for another home." BY JOHN BRANT, ESQ.

NEW-YORK: PRINTED BY G. B. LEITCH, 1852.

The history of the State of New York, from the first settlement to the present time, is a subject of great interest and importance. It is a subject which has attracted the attention of many of our countrymen, and which has been the subject of many valuable works.

The first settlement in the State of New York was made by the Dutch, in the year 1614. They discovered the river which bears the name of the State, and which is now the most important waterway in the country.

The Dutch were the first to settle in the State, and they were the first to establish a government. They were the first to plant the first colony, and they were the first to establish a system of education.

The Dutch were the first to discover the gold mines of the State, and they were the first to establish a system of mining. They were the first to plant the first colony, and they were the first to establish a system of education.
