

---

A N E P I T A P H

FOR

THE REV. JOHN HOMFRAY, M.A.
LATE RECTOR OF SUTTON, IN NORFOLK;

Who Departed this Life December 25, 1842, at the Age of 74.—(See Genl. Mag., March, 1843, p. 326.)

—◆—
(AN ACROSTIC.)

---

Journey no farther, Stranger,—ponder here;
Oh! HOMFRAY's memory let all revere.
Honour'd—beloved—regretted more around
None were than him who here sleeps so profound.
Heaven such learning, sure, on him bestow'd
Our souls to fit for that bright, blest abode!
Men's welfare, too, on earth, he ne'er forgot,
Fresh bounty still cheer'd poverty's sad lot.—
Reffect, ye kindred that behind remain;
Away with tears,—such spirits pure, 'tis plain,
Yield but to fate in endless bliss to reign!

C. C.

GREAT TOTHAM, MARCH, 1843.

---