

“GALS” AND GALVANISM!

—◆—
“And galvanism has set some corpses grinning.”—DON JUAN.

~~~~~

GALLOP and grieve, gaffers grave of the gallipot,— Gallows your gallons, with grief once gulp'd down!
Upon gallant Old David his “gal” wrought less wonders
Than our Galvanic “goes,” now, to peer and to clown!

We've “Galvanic Rings,” too,—which, no doubt, are fine things, too,—

But our fair heed not aught half so worthless and cold;
They'd much rather you'd sing, now,—“Let's play ‘Kiss in the Ring,’ now,”

And be teased to wear for you the ring—of “PLAIN GOLD!!”

DOGGREL DRYDOG***

TOTHAM, APRIL, 1845.

---

Great Totham: Printed at Charles Clark's Private Press.