ATTORNEYS' FEES.

It is further ordered that in each and every case which according to the said Fee Table now in force in a case of the third class, there shall be allowed and paid to the Attorney of the Plaintiff and to the Attorney of the Defendant in every such case, and in any stage thereof, the same fees which according to the said Fee Table now in force are allowed to the Attorney of the Plaintiff and to the Attorney of the Defendant respectively in a case of the second class in a similar stage.

And whereas it is highly necessary in consequence of the great increase of business that no delay should occur in the examination of witnesses in any contested case inscribed upon the Roll des Enquêtes, and that the absence of the Attorney for the Plaintiff or of the Attorney of the Defendant by reason of his being engaged in the examination of witnesses in an other case should no longer be received or allowed as a sufficient cause in any such case to postpone the examination of witnesses

therein whenever the same shall be called on—
It is ordered further that there shall be allowed in every case under £30 to the Attorney for the Plaintiff and to the Attorney for the Defendant, to enable them to procure the aid of other Counsel
if they cannot in person proceed to the Enquête
the sum of 20s. £1 0 0

And in all cases above £30, the sum of 1 13 4

That in each case of Partage, Bornage, Account or Revendication, in which by the final judgement
